Traffic Beef Ends in Fight

A milk truck driver and one of his helpers were arrested July 10 and charged with the June 28 assault and battery of William Plyler, 18, of 32189 Hill Road in Farmington. Plyler told police he was attacked by two men on a milk truck after the driver of the latter registered a complaint about the manner in which Plyler, who was driving a dump truck, made a turn near the intersection of Orchard Lake Road and 13 Mile Road in Farmington.

Arrested by Farmington Township Police were Gordon M. Whiteman, 23, of 2098 Helmford in Walled Lake and Doyle E. Schwab of 17004 Log Cabin in Detroit. They were arraigned before Justice of the Peace Byron Walter and released on $100 personal bond.

FARMINGTON ELKS CLUB "VIVIANS" (L to R) Rose Harris and Barbara Stephens are doing their best to get this Black Angus bull to Farmington in time for the Second Annual Elks Ox-Roast to be held Friday and Saturday, July 30 and 31. The Vivians and their Elk husbands will again be serving beef sandwiches in the Downtown Farmington Center parking lot as part of the Farmington Founders' Festival and the Downtown Merchants' Sidewalk Sale. The bull will be on display in a special pen at the Ox-Roast site during both days of the popular event.

Conclude Tour Of New England

The Gene Richards of 32710 Briarcrest in Franklin, Knolls have just returned from an historical tour of the New England States. Color movies were taken of all the state capitols and points of interest on the tour. Mrs. Richards being an antique enthusiast enjoyed shopping a long the New England countryside for lovely old cut glass, china and pewter. Stopping at the lobster pounds along the way in Maine, daughter Linda was amazed at the change of color the lobster is before and after. It was an experience she will long remember to be able to select your lobster alive and then watch it being prepared. During their stay in Hyannis

Port the Richards talked with shopkeepers and friends of the beloved late President Kennedy and family.

Many warm and human stories they heard which will be remembered forever. The tour ended with a trip to the World's Fair.

Forest Park News

by Arlene Wolfman GR 6-1254

Gail and Ken Perrin are parents of a third son, Theodore James, who arrived on June 24, weighing 9 lbs., 2 ozs.

I slipped up on Marlene and Tom Nolan's 14th wedding anniversary on June 14. The Nolans, including Mike, Karen, Tim and Pat and ex-babysitter Georgine Volkmar, just returned from a week's vacation traveling around our fair state in a trailer. They say "Never again." They found this manner of travel most uncomfortable and inconvenient.

But, Dene, Erv, Mark, Jim and Doug Heumann do like it. The Heumanns rented a trailer, drove through Nebraska, where they saw some of the flood areas, camped in Rocky Mountain National Park, then drove on to Denver and returned home through Missouri and Iowa. They had dinner with Jim Lauson of Leitz, who is supervising the construction of a building in Grand Island, Nebraska. The Heumanns also spent a most enjoyable day and night on Murial Kin's father's farm in Iowa, when Murial, Floyd and family were vacationing.

THE "MAHJ" girls and husbands wound up the Fourth of July weekend with a "Joumme" steak roast. Enjoying the meal were Roberts and Lloyd Schwartz, Arlene and Hy Wolfman, Dolly and Marshall Bergson, Jerry and Si Warschawsky and Shirley and Dick Pretzlaff.

Hy Wolfman has decided that when son Dan is pitching in the Cuts League, he had better forego his coaching duties. Hy became so vociferous last Friday evening, while arguing with the umpire, that he was ejected from the game.

Lois and Norm Ginebaugh of Doreen attended a wedding last Saturday night in Holland, Michigan, leaving sons Greg, Chuck and Jimmy with Norm's parents in Grand Rapids.

THE ANNUAL Fourth of July bike parade, complete with fire engine, was, as usual, an overwhelming success, with approximately 300 boys, girls, in trikes, wagons, strollers and bicycles participating in the parade through the subdivision. Following the parade, prizes were awarded and ice cream and cookies were served to the participants.

Will Strey of Ontago spent nine days on a business trip to Europe. He flew to London, England, Milan, Italy and Frankfurt, Germany. Will spent much of air force service life in Europe and found it a most interesting experience to return to these countries after an absence of 20 years.

Hazards of motherhood... Shirley Pretzlaff of Doreen was rough and tumbling with 3 year old son, Robbie, when Robbie's head accidentally banged into Shirley's nose. Result - Robbie's fine but Shirley's nose was broken.

Marshall Bergson's father was returned to the hospital last week. He had been doing quite well after his illness and operation, but suffered a setback.

Jean and Don Timpe of Doreen celebrated their 11th wedding anniversary on July 10th. Celebrating birthdays were Scott Turners who was 5 years old on July 2; Craig Unger, 13, on the 3rd; Jeanne Marie Kopins, one year old on the 4th; Ricky Schlager, 7, David Perry, 4, on the 5th; Corey Walther, 4, on the 6th; Greg Mason, 4, on the 7th; Chuck Kin, 13, and Mark Turner, 6, on the 9th; Mark Bone, 3, and Bobby Desber, 14, on the 12th; and Bonnie Babcock, 10 on the 13th.
