

Well, summer brings with it the need to get away and relax. To some this means a vacation away from the city, to a camping trip or a voyage across country. Others enjoy packing the kids in the family car and driving up to a week end cottage in the hills. One such enthusiast is John Kijowski who bravely battled 7 children all the way up and back. I understand that he shared a cottage with another group of about five. They had to cut their trip short though, because daughter Robin became ill. Hope by this time she is feeling much better.

ANOTHER MEMBER on the sick list was Carol Bourassa of Crested Drive who was in the hospital a week for removal of a cyst. All's fine now.

Big Carnival Will Finance Deaf Children's Training

Plans are well under way for a "Mid-Summer-Carnival" to be held at Ivory Polo Grounds, at 9990 Cooley Lake Rd., Union Lake, on Sunday, August 8. Posters are going up throughout the county and tickets are on sale. A large tent has been rented and many other aspects are in the working.

Rides, games and refreshments will be available. Skydivers, Rock 'n' Roll Bands and other entertainment are being arranged.

The "Deaf Olympics," a parents group for Deaf and hard of Hearing children, have sponsored a six weeks summer school program for the past two years.

Deaf children because of lack of training through the summer months tend to regress from 2 to 3 months, requiring several months of re-viewing to regain their class level.

THIS PAST year funds were raised by holding canned drives, selling tickets, donations from service organizations, etc. Parents, volunteers from Brownies, Girl and Boy Scouts, neighbors and friends worked hard to make the drive a success. The outcome was the amount of $12,000, the cost of the summer school program for this year.

Sixty-nine children from twenty different communities throughout the county are attending the summer classes now in session. The average child is seven children per teacher, since deaf children cannot be taught in classes as large as those of a hearing child. Much special attention is needed for each child.

"THAT THE DEAF MAY SPEAK" This is the hope for our deaf children. Deaf education today is speech and lip-reading. Thanks to the invention of the hearing aid and many specially trained teachers, a deaf child no longer has to go through life using his hands to communicate with others.

FARMINGTON TEACHER of the deaf, Miss Judy Jones, is shown here working with a child of one of the "Lost Deafies," Stacey Russell of Walled Lake.

Another traveler has been 10 year old Joan Guay who spent a month with Godparents Norman and Rosemary Guay jogging westward in a travel trailer. Next week I will have more details of the trip.

MY HUSBAND and I also were on the move last weekend. Along with friends Marty and Shirley Lepall we drove to Chicago for business and pleasure. After a business meeting for the men, we drove through Chicago's Loop and visited River View Park where Marty and Frank rode the parachute jump.

The Jerry Perry's had a birthday party patio style on July 11 honoring Jerry Sr. On the guest list were Mr. and Mrs. Pedro Rubi, and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Rasmussen of Creekside Drive, Mr. and Mrs. Don Jack of Brooklake, and Mrs. Jerry Kijowski of S. Duncan, and Mr. and Mrs. Mario Morino of Bold Drive. Also included were Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Sauter from Farmington Meadows.

We hope to get plans for the Halloween get-together formulated soon.

UNRA Home Sales up by 39 percent

Multisite sales by members of the United Northwestern Realty Association (which most Farmington realtors are members of) during the first six months of 1965 were 39 percent greater than in the same period of 1964, Marvin O. Moser, president, reported.

Covering the northwest section of Detroit and adjacent portions of both Wayne and Oakland counties, the UNRA cooperative listing service is the second-largest in the country.

"Used homes, realistically priced, are selling extremely well in all sections of our territory," Moser said. "Any homeowner who lists his property with a Realtor and doesn't overprice it is likely to get fast action."

In the first half of the current year UNRA brokers rang up an all-time record of 4280 sales for a total value of $56,168,000. This compares with 3285 residential sales aggregating $47,667,000 in the first half of 1964. The average selling price also was up 6 percent—amounting to $15,319 per house in 1965, as compared with the $14,340 average selling price per house in 1964.

Tutorial Plan To be Used at O.C. College

A pioneer in the field of the Tutorial Approach for Individualized Instruction, Dr. Samuel N. Postlethwaite of Purdue University, conferred with the faculty of Oakland Community College, July 19-21.

Oakland Community College will utilize the tutorial method of instruction on a college-wide basis when it opens its doors to an anticipated 3,000 students on September 7.

Prof. Postlethwaite has used the tutorial method since 1961 at Purdue. He described how the tutorial method is used in the teaching of his courses in Botany.

Prof. Postlethwaite indicated to the OCC faculty that his experience has shown that the traditional classroom lecture situation has been of negligible value as a learning device.

At the conclusion of the 1964-65 school year, Dr. Postlethwaite received an award from the Delta Sigma Chi Fraternity which designated him as "The teacher who contributed most to education in 1964-65."

Stacked Trash Cans Provided Chuckles

Residents on Wayburn in Westbrooke Subdivision of Farmington Township were greeted last Friday morning with a sight of trash cans stacked in pyramid fashion in front of the homes.

The vertical piles of trash cans raised a chuckle throughout the neighborhood. Wayburn was the only street trash collectors chose to indulge in the unusual vertical, as opposed to horizontal, stacking of the garbage cans.
