Mrs. Pearl Francis of 22745 Hawthorne just returned recently from an extensive stay in Florida. She made her headquarters at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Victor Moore of Wakena Drive in Coral Gables. She visited Mrs. Emily Finch of St. Petersburg Beach, Mrs. Lena Engard of Brandon and Mrs. Lillian Strickland of Gilberson and Ruskin, Florida. Mrs. Strickland celebrated her one hundredth birthday July 31. She is still enjoying good health and is as ambitious as ever.

Mrs. Francis mentioned the Anheuser-Busch Gardens at Tampa, as the most beautiful she had ever seen. They are well worth a visit to the menagerie and flower garden. She covered all the trails in the Everglades, and saw the museum in Sarasota. Mrs. Francis spent the entire winter in Florida and wants to do the same next year. She is entirely sold on vacationing there.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Young of 23242 Lilac and their four children, Betty Jo, Tom Junior, Paul and Andy, just arrived home from a wonderful two weeks' vacation spent in the

FARC Director says Thanks

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

This letter is written to thank all those persons whose assistance helped to make the Farmington Area Recreation Commission's program the success that the total participation figures suggest it to have been.

The Commission is not only grateful to those governmental, civic, and social organizations that provided the necessary monies, but also to numerous individuals who gave their moral support to the Commission's endeavor to make this past summer a pleasant one for the youngsters to enjoy. It is surprising the number of people whose behind-the-scenes assistance is required to make possible a smooth running and efficient program such as the one the Commission feels it brought to the community.

FIRST AND foremost the Commission is most appreciative for the assistance given it by the Farmington Board of Education and its Superintendent, Mr. Gerald V. Harrison. Without their assistance the program would not have been possible.

Our many thanks are extended as well to the Superintendent's staff in the persons of Mr. James Read, Mr. Byron Oliver, Mr. John Cotton, Mr. John Greshover, Mr. Ralph Vert, and to the principals and custodians at the schools used.

At this time, also, the Commission wishes to add to the previously published list of contributors of prizes for the July 30 Field Day the following: Clearcreek business establishment, Robertson's Hardware, Wurtzbauser Discount Variety Store, Filmar Supermarket and American Hardware and Supply.

The generosity of these merchants, as well as the Farmington merchants whose names were previously published, was greatly appreciated.

It is the hope of the Commission that those who gave of their time and money can hear the quiet thanks of the 11,905 youngsters who benefited by their generosity.

Thank you, EVANS H. BAGERIS, Director, FARC.

Harvey B. Goldberg, owner of the exclusive Harvi's Suburban Casuals Shop in the Farmington Shopping Plaza, announced an expanded service this week.

"In keeping with our policy of anticipating and fulfilling the needs and desires of our patrons, as witnessed by the expansion that doubled the size of our facilities last year, we are now devoting half of our entire store space to sports wear," Goldberg said.

"This new program will allow us to expand our existing lines of sports wear in petites, juniors and misses sizes and carefully select others to offer our customers," Mr. Goldberg explained.

The sports wear expansion program is now in effect with the showing of Fall and Winter fashions.

Michigan holds the record for milk produced by a single cow. In a 365-day period during 1951-52, a seven-year-old Holstein, "Green Meadow Holly Babat" of Green Meadow Farms at Elsie in Clinton county, produced more than 21 tons of milk.
