Virginia Maattala Speaks Wedding Vows August 21

Virginia Faye Maattala and Richard Lynn Whitehead exchanged marriage vows in a double ring ceremony Saturday morning, August 21, at St. Mary's Church, Milford. Parents of the couple are Mr. and Mrs. Tarmo Maattala of Orchard Street, Farmington and Mr. and Mrs. Wayne Whitehead of Milford.

Crowned Queen Of Oakland 4-H Fair

Jeree Bachelor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bachelor of Orchard Lake Rd. was recently crowned Queen of the Oakland County 4-H Fair at Pontiac. The King was Jim Smith, of South Lyons. Both veteran 4-H members, the Queen and King were picked from six finalists. A Senior at Farmington High School, Jeree has done outstanding work in her 4-H activities. In July, she was awarded a trip to Washington for a week's Citizenship training course at the National 4-H Center at Washington, D.C. THE CITIZENSHIP course included discussions and field trips and visits with our Congressman and Senator. Field trips included the Capital, White House, Department of Agriculture, foreign embassies and other points of interest in Washington.

She also was awarded a trip to Missouri on an Exchange Program. She stayed with a 4-H member there and visited many points of interest. Jeree will leave this week to stay at Michigan State University as she was awarded State Show on her Wild Flower Exhibit at the Oakland County Fair.

Auditors Praise Accounting Dept.

Clarke and Williams, CPAs, were high in their praise of the Farmington Public School System's accounting department after giving their annual audit report to the Board of Education on August 23.

Williams stated that the accounting practices in Farmington were excellent in comparison with other school districts and commended the department for the efficient assistance and cooperation during the annual audit.

orchids was accented with white roses and stephanotis. Matron of honor was Mrs. James R. Wolfe of Madison, Wisconsin, and bridesmaids were Carole Maattala, sister of the bride, and Kathy Whitehead, sister of the bridegroom. Margie Maattala was the flower girl.

THE ATTENDANTS were gowned in floor length empire dresses of pink crepe with lace bodices. They wore matching satin bows with circular veils and carried bouquets of pink carnations and ivy.

John Dunleavy was the best man and Fred Penness, cousin of the bridegroom, and Mike Maattala, brother of the bride, were ushers.

MRS. MAATTALA wore a blue silk brocade jacket dress. The bridegroom's mother chose an aqua chiffon dress. Both mothers wore matching corsages.

Following a reception at Bonnie Brook Country Club, the couple left for a honeymoon in New England. They plan to reside in Detroit.

The engagement of Catherine Mehl to Thomas Sherlock, both of Farmington, is announced by her parents, The Rev. and Mrs. C. E. Mehl, also of Farmington. The prospective bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. George Sherlock. An October 23 wedding is planned at Prince of Peace Lutheran Church.
