John and Stephanie Burns and all the little Burns have returned from a cottage at Higgins Lake. They spent the days taking side trips through northern Michigan and taking in as many tourist attractions as could be squeezed in. Lee and Clint Justice of Laurelwood, with their children Ellen and Donald, packed up their house trailer and headed for Yellowstone National Park where they came to face with the wild west in the form of a big black bear they caught window peeping. Home after a glorious three week camping trip to Lake Louise and Banff National Park in the Canadian Rockies are Shelly and Elaine Greenberg and children Susan, Fern, Mimi and Mark. While out west they journeyed on to Edmonton and Calgary to visit some of Shelly's relatives and then down to Minnesota to visit Mr. and Mrs. Horn. Sue and Steve Sery and sons Michael and Douglas vacationed this summer in West Monterey, Pennsylvania. Traveling to Johnston, Pennsylvania, were Ray and Nancy Rizzo and children Bob, Shelly, Terry and Ricky to visit both sets of grandparents. JOURNEYING to Middlesex, New Jersey to visit old neighbors, the Richters, were the Kreitz of Robinwood. Lynn, Ed, Colleen and Jeffery also toured the New York World's Fair, went on for a week to Ocean City, New Jersey and then on to Pocono, Pennsylvania to visit Ed's father, Mr. H. Kreitz. Driving north for a weekend camping trip were the Rex Hobbs family of Meadowlark. Not everyone left the Meadows for places far and wide this summer. Visiting the Burns of Meadowlark was John's brother and family, the Robert Burns of Louisville, Kentucky.

Marge and Glenn Stock of Laurelwood entertained Marge's aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Frederick of Washago, Ont. In turn the Fredericks took daughter Shiela back with them for a nice visit.

Visiting Elaine and Orval Rittlering of Meadowlark were Elaine's mother, Mrs. E. Hirsch and sister Lila from Nebraska. Moving from Livonia, original Farmington residents Bill and Gerri Hanson have come to the Meadows to roost with their children Elaine and Billy. Mr. Hanson is employed by the Consumers Power Company. After their big move the family went to Houghton Lake for a vacation.

COMING FROM Cincinnati, Ohio are residents Bob and Bill Paige and children Susan, Tommy and Kitty. Mr. Paige is the Divisional Manager of Kinneair Manufacturing Company of Detroit, Ohio. Noralee Stock, accompanied by her mother and father, attended the Y.B.A. awards dinner at the Latin Quarter. Noralee was a member of the Regional Jr. Girls Winners and received a trophy. She also passed her Senior Life Saving this summer which will help her as a future Camp Counselor.

Most excited and envied male in the Meadows is Bob Tucker of Birchwood. After 22 years of golfing Bob hit a hole-in-one. The place, the fourth hole, Red Run Golf Course, Royal Oak. Former residents Neta and Mark Messler are temporarily settled in Wisconsin, until their home is ready in Naperville, Illinois. Son Mark has been named in Farmington to begin his college education at Wayne State University this fall.

Our deepest sympathies go to Roy and Betty Willard in the death of Roy's father, Mr. C. A. Willard of Cleveland, Ohio and to Jim and Nancy Platt in the loss of their baby. September brings with it "a call to order" for various clubs and organizations. The Farmington Women's Civic Club is to meet Thursday, September 16, at Mrs. Hazel Federspiel's home on Robinwood. The Flanders P.T.A. will hold their first meeting at the school on September 20. Also a meeting for the handicraft workers of the coming School Fair will meet at the home of Stephanie Burns, 21119 Meadowlark, at 8:30 p.m. Thursday, September 16. Anyone unable to attend the meeting may pick up supplies and ideas from Judy Wildinson, 21122 Laurelwood.

THE SICK LIST this week includes Bette Willard with a pinched nerve in her back; Maureen Stock who has broken her arm in two places and will start first grade all slung up; and little Kimmy Burns who is also sporting a cast on her arm almost as big as she is. Birthday wishes go to Susan Paige, Marie Burns, Debbie Smith, Lou Carr, Jean Zack, Thomas Chenot, Lisa Carr, Delores Springmeier, and Gayle Jacobs.

Miss Betty Esther Frieling, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Robert Frieling of 33906 State Street in Farmington, exchanged wedding vows Saturday, August 14, with Mr. Ward

Mitchell Diehl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ward M. Diehl, Sr. of 16 Highview Terrace in New Baltimore, Michigan. The double ring ceremony took place in the First Presbyterian Church of Farmington at 1 p.m. on August 14 with the Rev. George Ramsay, pastor of the church, officiating. White mums and daisies decorated the church.

THE BRIDE CHOSE a wedding gown of complete lace with long sleeves and a hooped skirt. Her headress was periwinkle with flowers securing a fingertip veil. She carried a bouquet of baby carnations and stephanotis.

The maid of honor was Susan Frieling, sister of the bride. She chose a full length pale yellow taffeta with darker yellow panels in the back. She carried a bouquet of white daisies.

Bridesmaids were Barbara Frieling and Nao Marie Diehl. They were outfitted in gowns matching that worn by the maid of honor and carried yellow daisies.

GREGORY HOHLER served as the best man for the bridegroom. Serving as ushers were Robert King, Edward Bissel and Donald Pellibone.

Beth and Debra Knighton served as flower girls. They wore blue dresses and carried baskets of daisies.

Susan Edwards, soprano, sang "The Lord's Prayer" and "The Greatest of These If Love", accompanied by Dr. Robert Bigood who also played an organ selection by Purcell, "Trumpet Tune".

For the occasion, the bride's mother chose a three-piece raw silk suit of light blue. Her accessories included a light blue feathered hat and blue shoes. Her flowers were pink and roses with stephanotis.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of pink material with a pink hat and accessories of white. Her flowers were pink bud roses.

A RECEPTION was held in the Knox House of the First Presbyterian Church immediately following the ceremony. Mums and daisies decorated the scene. Pink punch, sandwiches, a four-tiered cake, coffee and candy were served to the guests. Shelley Helgren served at the punch table.

Out-of-town guests attending the wedding included Mrs. John Person of Little Falls, New Jersey, Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Frieling of Saginaw, Michigan, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Stueck of Clinton, Michigan and Dr. Roberta Bigood of Bay City, Michigan.

THE NEWLYWEDS left on a honeymoon to Mackinac Island and Canada following the reception. The bride chose a three-piece light brown knitted dress with a feathered hat and brown accessories for traveling. The couple planned to be at home by August 31.

The bride is a graduate of Farmington High School and attended Port Huron Junior College. The bridegroom is a 1965 graduate of Port Huron College and plans to attend Oakland University and work towards a degree in engineering.

Local Jaycees Win Tourney

On Sunday, August 29, the District 9 Jaycees of the Michigan Junior Chamber of Commerce held their softball playoff in the Farmington City Park.

There were four Jaycee chapters represented in the playoffs, Farmington, Clawson, Milford and Royal Oak.

FARMINGTON'S JAYCEE chapter won the District Championship as well as first place in the District. At the picnic, there were about two hundred persons in attendance and a good time was had by all.

We are looking forward to another successful year working together on worthy projects, and enjoying our social functions.

Three Take Special NBD Schooling

A Farmington resident and a manager of two Farmington offices of National Bank of Detroit are among fourteen officers and managers of NBD completing two weeks of advanced schooling at Graduate School of Banking at the University of Wisconsin in Madison.

The school is sponsored by the Central States Conference, composed of bankers' associations of 16 midwestern states. There are about 1,300 bankers from 40 states, the District of Columbia and Central America enrolled in this year's graduate courses.

The school requires two weeks resident attendance each year for three years to earn the certificate of graduation. Between resident sessions, students are required to do extension work involving problems in all phases of banking.

Graduate students from the National Bank of Detroit include Richard J. MacPherson, senior, 13119 Nashville Drive, Detroit, manager of the NBD Farmington office; Joseph A. Fraumenich, freshman, 2024 Hawthorne Road, Grosse Pointe, manager of the NBD Middlebelt-Eleven Mile Road office; and Theodore E. Heiman, freshman, 11119 Richmond Hill Road, Farmington, branch manager assigned to the City Division, NBD main office.
