Dean. Other members of the team are Tom Young, Jack Elson, Warren McKenzie, Al August, Stephen August, Duane Delling, Jack Quigley, Don Kuick, Tom Walls, C. A. Adams, John Herrington, Warren Pierce and Brian Rundo.

THE LOYAL ORDER OF MOOSE, Lodge 1095 of Farmington, captured the championship in the Farmington Civic Softball League this past week in action under the lights in the City Park. Holding the trophy are (L to R) Moose captain Al Cunningham and Bud Garner. The other team members are Tony Kolodeyab, James Miller, Clyde Green, Ed Wild, A. J. Kataja, Windel Harvey, Jim Gatti, Fred Penness, Jim Reed and Dick Fisher. The order of finish in the new league was Moose, Lincolnshire, Grohman Electric and Knights of Columbus.

FHS Scrimmage Held Labor Day

The Farmington High School football team went through a brisk intra-squad scrimmage Labor Day morning with coach Dick Tyler getting a close look at some newcomers and his returning veterans in action.

Showing well in the backfield for the Falcons are the first two units of the varsity run plays against the Reserves were quarterback Mike Wilson and his running mates Wayne Johnston, Ray Lardie and Ron Shortt, all seniors carried over from last year's team.

NEWCOMERS Chris Norton and Fritz Simons also showed they could carry the ball in the hour-long scrimmage.

In the line, end Steve Moore was tested for the first time along with end Mike Ames. Both played varsity basketball for the Falcons this past season and have the size to make good receivers for the Blue and White squad. Veteran end Jerry Tinkle who is expected to see plenty of action this season was sidelined with an injury on Labor Day but will be ready for the opener against Plymouth next Friday afternoon, September 17, at FHS.

Another veteran who is currently out with an injury is Captain Mike Perry, a guard who will anchor the Falcon line this season. A promising newcomer in the Falcon front line is Larry Cogsdill who will see action at one of the guard positions.

The center position is in the hands of veteran John Ports and Craig Anderson. Ron Reinke and Fred Niemiec are also tested linemen.

Local Teens Aid Leukemia Drive

Farmington teenagers are having a car wash and bake sale this Saturday, September 11, in the Packers' parking area at 8 Mile and Grand River. Proceeds from the two projects will be used to help support St. Jude Research Hospital, a hospital dedicated to finding a cure for leukemia. Members of the teen committee are also seeking the support of businesses in Farmington. Several donations have been received, and anyone wishing to donate may call committee chairman Jackie Giles, GR. 4-4418; co-chairman Pat Frasure, GR. 6-2133; or chairman Pat Cale, GR. 4-0077.

Local Job's Daughters at International

Farmington Bethel No. 55 was represented at the "Land of Lincoln Session" held at the Palmer House in Chicago, Illinois, when 3,000 Job's Daughters met from around the world gathered for the 45th Annual Supreme Session of the International Order of Job's Daughters.

Jean Miller, P.H.Q., Charlotte Anne Legg, P.H.Q., Sharon Thomas, Sue Ellen Legg, Jere Bacheler, and Bethel Guardian Mary Legg from Farmington were part of the fifty-member delegation from Michigan which was headed by Grand Guardian, Grace Beckler, and Associate Grand Guardian, Dr. Wallace O'Brien.

Highlight of the trip for the Michigan Delegation came with the selection of Miss Pat Collier, Past Honored Queen of Dearborn Bethel 72, as the Supreme Inner Guard and a Michigan-Breakfast given in honor of the Grand Guardians. Mrs. Remmender was presented an arrangement of pink roses by Martha Colby, Grand Bethel Honored Queen.

The opening ceremonies under the direction of the Supreme Inner Guard, Grace Beckler, were held at the beautiful Medina Temple. The most impressive ceremony was the presentation of the Flags from the various countries, states, and provinces escorted to the east by the Grand Bethel Honored Queens dressed in royal purple robes wearing crowns and many attired in costumes from their homelands.

Drill team competition among the Bethels from throughout the United States and Provinces was held at the Light Guard Armory. Sightseeing tours were planned for Daughters to the Art Institute, Adler Planetarium, Chicago Natural History Museum, Chicago Academy of Sciences and Industry, as well as shopping tours to the world famous Merchandise Mart. Of special interest to the teenagers from all over was the appearance of the Beatles at the Sportsman's Park.

Jaycees Earn Softball Crown

Farmington's Junior Chamber of Commerce softball team won their last five games, including playoffs, and won their second straight Jaycee District 9 championship in recent action.

Playing four games, two of them extra inning affairs, in five days with a somewhat makeshift lineup because of injuries, Farmington overcame tremendous odds and lived up to Manager Al Sittinick's early season expectations. The Jaycees' defense was outstanding in these final games.

August 25 at City Park, they won, forfeit from Madison Heights, 1-0, and then beat Berkeley, 23-1.

HARV WILSON and Tom Lindbergh each had a home run and CRIF LORETH and Chet Pawlik had one apiece. The Jaycees played remarkably well in this game, considering that the field was partially blanketed in fog for 2 innings.

In a makeup game against Farmington August 28 at Clawson, Farmington won, 16-9, in nine innings. Clawson had an especially tough team and it wasn't until a barrage of singles in the 9th inning scoring seven runs for Farmington, that the outcome was settled. Wilson had a homer in this game.

IN THE PLAYOFFS August

29, held at City Park, Farmington met Clawson again in the first game and they were as tough as Saturday, as the Jaycees needed 12 innings to win, 7-6. This was strictly a defensive battle with 6 straight scoreless innings before Farmington snuck a run across in the 12th and hung on to win. Pawlik had a home run for the Jaycees and Loreth was lost mid-way in the game with a serious spike injury in the hand.

FARMINGTON then played Royal Oak in the championship game, and had their finest hour, winning 8-7. Lindbergh had two homers, Wilson one and Don Kobman had the most exciting hit for the Jaycees. He hit his first home run in 2 years. The game was on base to give Farmington an insurmountable lead. Only one word can describe the Jaycees' play in this game — HEART.

Farmington finished its championship season with a 14 record. They now will play for the Regional Championship against Redford on Sunday, Sept. 12 at Livonia Ford Field on Farmington Rd. at 2 p.m. The team will play on Sunday, Sept. 19, for the Southeastern Michigan Jaycee Championship.

Job's Daughters Get New Guardians

Job's Daughters Bethel No. 55 held their 10th Annual Guardian Council Installation on Wednesday, September 1, at the Farmington Savings and Loan Association building on Orchard Lake Road.

Honored Queen, Diane Line, opened the Bethel in the regular manner. Mrs. Wilma Songer, Past Guardian, was escorted to the east and introduced as the Installing Officer.

Mrs. Gladys Thomas and Mr. Andrew Thomas received the obligation and were installed as Bethel Guardians. The Executive Guardian Council for 1965-1966 include Mrs. Mary Yovanovich, Guardian Secretary; Mrs. Bert Shook, Charlotte Anne Legg, and Howard Legg, P.A.G., treasurer.

SERVING A.S. committee members for the ensuing year are Kathryn Gellera, custodian of Paraphernalia; Vivian Smith, junior activities; Rose Mahaney, good will; Joan Reynolds, director of merits; Mary Legg, P.G., director of Epochs; Wilma Songer, P.G., sociability; Grace Bacheler and Pearl Line, hospitality; and Henry Mahaney, financial. Representatives to the associated orders are Margaret Williamson, Order of Eastern Star Chapter 239; Berce Browning, White Shrine of Jerusalem No. 44; Robert Dusenberry, P.M., Lodge 151 F. & A. M., and Edward Hammond, Order of DeMolay.

A special tribute was paid to the newly installed Council officers by Past Honored Queen, Charlotte Anne Legg, who gave a reading, "Our Guardians" written by a member of Job's Daughters and recently published in the "Supreme News."

Gifts were presented to the new guardians by Honored Queen, Diane Line, on behalf of the Bethel members. In keeping with the Bethel tradition the retiring Guardians, Mary Legg and James Williamson presented Gladys and Andy Thomas with the Bethel Guardian Pins.

DISTINGUISHED GUESTS present for the ceremony included Miss Jane Rahn, Senior Princess, Southfield U.D. Bethel 55 Past Honored Queens, Lorraine Hoeglund, Jean Miller and Charlotte Anne Legg, Worthy Matron, Dorothy Ogburn and Worthy Patron, Howard Legg were also in attendance.

Following the installation refreshments were served by the Honored Queen's Mother, Mrs. Pearl Line. The centerpiece was a designed by Honored Queen Diane using her flower, the red rose, placed across the "Open Holy Bible".

THE PETE WHITE MEMORIAL Trophy was presented to the Knights of Columbus softball team, St. Francis Council 4401 of Farmington, last week by his widow, June White, to K of C team captain Paul Korte. Members of the White family and friends of the late

Pete White, a team captain and organizer in the Farmington Softball League, were on hand for the presentation. The trophy will be awarded annually to the Farmington softball team which is voted best in sportsmanship at the end of the season.

Optimist Club to Present Film Sept. 14

The Farmington Optimist Club will present the technical or motion picture film, "How to Watch Pro Football," at 7:30 p.m. on Tuesday evening, September 14, dinner meeting at Botsford Inn, 6:30 p.m.

The half-hour film, being shown to the Farmington Optimists through the courtesy of the National Bank of Detroit, was produced by the National Football League Films, Inc., official motion picture unit of the NFL.

THE FARMINGTON Optimist Club is inviting all men in the community to join them for this excellent entertainment program on September 14. Reservations for the dinner portion of the program which will start at 6:30 p.m. can be made by calling Optimist Club President, Royce Norton at GR. 4-5594 or GR. 4-3000 or House and Reception Chairman Charles Wirtz at GR. 6-2934 or WO. 1-9729.

THE OPTIMIST CLUB is showing the film as part of its fall membership drive program and hopes to interest men living in the community to join their ranks as a service club devoted to promoting youth activities.

How to Watch Pro Football is narrated by former All-Pro halfback Frank Gifford of the New York Giants and Ray Scott, the vice of the Green Bay Packers. The film was designed to help avid football fans and casual observers, alike, to get more out of the game. It was assembled from a film library of more than 100 recent NFL games, including championship games. All the plays shown are live-action performances by NFL stars taken from actual game combat.

NOTHING HAD to be staged. Each game was filmed in the unique and costly multiple-
