Westlake News

NANCY WILSON
474-4113

There is peace in Westlake Village and if you are up early one can see numerous mothers lounging around the neighborhood with all of their little ones sent off to school. Congratulations to all of you lucky on!

Doug and Martha Andredge of Tuck Drive may have a celebrity in the family in the near future. Doug's sister, Linda, is leaving Thursday for the Pasadena Playhouse in Pasadena, California. The Playhouse has accepted her and she is now on her way to an acting career.

CUB SCOUT NEWS: Boys between the ages of 8 and 10 may call Mrs. Betty Bonin, 476-4025, for information on becoming a Cub Scout. Pack 162 will meet September 21 at the Shawassaw School.

The Jack Morgan's and the Doug Sanderson's traveled a bit last week. They enjoyed dinner at Seagrams Tower overlooking Niagara Falls and then went on to New York where they promptly got lost (doesn't everyone?). At the World's Fair, Empire State Building and the Statue of Liberty. The Morgan's and the Sanderson's reside on North Stockton.

The Jim Bonen's of North Stockton Court have been entertaining recently. Judy's relatives, The C. W. Brukmyre family, Mr. and Mrs. G. E. Phippen of Bay City and William Behrend and Family. Last weekend Mr. and Mrs. Melvin Groulx and family were here from Bay City. Mrs. Groulx is Jim's sister.

CONGRATULATIONS (and blue bows for Charles and Betty Roame on the birth of Charles Michael on Friday, September 17. Little Chuck weighed in at 7 lbs. 2 oz. at St. Mary Hospital in Livonia.

The Roy Kerby's of Glenmoor Heights Drive welcomed their son, who hasn't been here for 14 years, last week. They are the Clifford Ressler's of Tupman, California, which is near Bakersfield. They were greeted at the airport by 16 relatives and their son Michael who arrived by plane 5 minutes before them. Michael has recently been discharged from the Army where he served at Fort Sill, Oklahoma. Everyone had a nice visit and a delightful lunch at the Kerby home. FRIDAY AND Saturday held

Area Resident
In U D Play Cast

Area resident Kelly Burke, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Burke of 22716 Floral, has been cast as a Bellboy in the upcoming University of Detroit Theatre's production of Arthur Kopit's "Oh Dad, Poor Dad, Mamma's Hung You in the Closet and I'm Feelin' So Sad." The award-winning play is slated to open at the U. of D. Friday, October 8.

A sophomore Radio-TV major in the College of Arts and Sciences, Burke is "vice-president of Pi Kappa Delta Forensic Fraternity, an associate member of the Academy of Radio-Television Students and the recipient of the U. of D. Interpretive Reading Award.

birthday parties for Mark Redenius who recently turned two years old. Friday evening the party was held in the Pollock home of So. Stockton with the relatives attending. Saturday provided more surprises in Mark's home on Lahar Road when Barb, Steven and Scott Carlisle, Barb Williams and Timmy, Pat Schaefer with Leslie and Steven and Mary Ann Goetz with Annie and Mike joined him for cake and ice cream.

Two weeks ago Mrs. Mabel Pollock, mother of Dave, arrived with her other son Phil at the Pollock home from Dowagiac, Michigan. The Pollocks had a birthday party for her and then sent her packing and placed her on a plane bound for New York and the World's Fair.

DON'T FORGET! Westlake Village's Gala Dinner Dance is to be held October 9 in Roma Hall. The price: $6.00 per person. Only a few tickets left, so hurry and get yours NOW. Contact your block representative, Mary Ann Pollock, 476-4790.

Barb Carlisle beat everyone out at bowling last week with her 180 game, however, she didn't win the jackpot because the men wouldn't let the women enter. The Carlisle's bowl at Country Lanes with the Westlake Village League.
