

Public Letterbox

(Editor's note: The following letter was prepared by the Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce, which is cooperating with the Jaycees in helping to promote superior education in our schools by recognizing an "Outstanding Young Educator". They ask the students who may read or hear about their aims to submit a candidate whom they think is worthy of the distinction based on the criteria detailed in the letter.)

To the Editor:

An open letter to all Farmington area students.

Outstanding Young Educator. Any of you kids happen to like your teacher? Any of you parents happen to be well enough acquainted with your children's teachers to have recognized one you think is outstanding? (You all should be).

On November 6, the Jaycees will recognize an Outstanding Young Educator (age 21-35) in the Farmington system. Is there a young man or woman whom you think is doing a good job "beyond the call of duty"? Someone who excites the imagination of the students, who really makes education fun while challenging young minds to new achievements? If so, please let us know.

There are many such teachers here, so help us to identify them, and to give some well-deserved recognition for a job well done. Just drop a letter or a card to:

THE AUDIO VISUAL Department in the Farmington Public Schools provides a service to the community which several local groups have taken advantage of this fall. Ron Cleveland, a senior at Farmington High School, is pictured above (third from left) with officers of the Farmington Optimist Club at the Optimist dinner meeting September 28 at Botsford Inn which featured a showing of the 1965 Buick Open film.

Ron is kept almost as busy running movie projects as he is in his role as a ballback for the Farmington High School football team. The Optimists (pictured 1. to R) Royce Norton, Frenchy Davis, Charlie Wirtz and Bob Greene have called on the Audio Visual Department at Farmington High on two occasions already this fall to arrange for a projectionist for their film programs.

Ginny and Don Oliveto of South Brandon are the proud parents of their fourth child—daughter Michele, born September 19, and weighing 8 lbs. 2 oz. at birth. The Olivetos have two other girls, Lynn, 6, and Laurie 4, and a boy, Don-nic, 2.

Congratulations also to Luella and Conrad Hempel of North Brandon on the birth of daughter Caroline, on September 21.
Caroline weighed in at a robust 10 lbs. 6 1/2 oz. and was welcomed home by her five-year-old brother Freddie, and three-year-old sister, Marcia.
Jerry Freedman honored his wife, Carol, with a gala birthday party on Saturday, October 2. Believing she was being taken to the London Ch.O.P.
House for her birthday, Carol was thoroughly surprised when she was ushered into the garden of approximately 50 people who had kept the secret for almost a month. The guests presented very funny, unex-pectable, gag gifts to the birthday gal. The party was attended by both Jerry's and Carol's parents, and among those from the subdivisions were Elaine and Bob Cohen, Ardell and Nate Firestone, Myrna and Dick Edgar, Lila and Jerry Avin, and Dolly and Marshall Bergson. The creative and talented Myrna Edgar made all the decorations and Elaine Cohen prepared a delightful version of "This is your Life".

LEAVING their boys home with a sister, Rita and Dick Crudele of Leyte left for a month's motor trip age Monday on a motor trip through lower Michigan. They traveled through the Irish Hills, dined at Win Schuler's in Marshall, bought some Dutch souvenirs in Holland, rode the sundries in Shelby, stayed overnight in Cadillac, lunched at Frankenmuth on Tuesday night in Lila, at the Hawaiian Gardens, went bowling, swam in the indoor pool, and returned home from their enjoyable vacation for the Friday. It was sort of a five-day celebration of their twelfth wedding anniversary which was on October 2.

Bobby Treat, son of Bob and Connie Treat of Malden, invited fourteen "hillbillies" to help him celebrate his eighth birthday. Among those attending the out-of-doors party in hillbilly attire were Tommy Barth, Mike Bergson, Allen Crudele, Steven Fafie and Donald and Jackie King.

SHARING birthday cake and ice cream with Brian Garner, five year old son of Elsie and Hubert Garner of South Brandon, were Lisa, Leslie and Jamie Rodda, Laurie Treat, Marilyn Millman, Brian and Mike Berardi, Theresa Held, Mark Ensworth, Carlene and Cindy Harbin and Leslie Strang.

Happy Birthday also to Patricia Adams, 12, on October 2; Suzanne Weber, 10, on October 3; Greg Zuchowski, 15, on October 4; Phil Millman, 15, on October 5; Lisa Schwartz, 7, on October 6; Bob Kin, 12, and Mark Patterson, 6, on October 7; Jack Schwartz, 4, Mike Berardi, also 4, on October 8; Cindy Berardi, 6, and Mike Smalz, 14, on October 10.

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce is preparing for their semiannual recruiting drive according to Crisler, Jaycee Member Ship Chairman, Pat Novak.
Jaycee President, stated, "The drive is directed to the young men in the Farmington area.
From 21 to 35 years of age. We feel confident that once we have an opportunity to explain our functions and objectives, the new membership goal of at least 35 can be achieved."

In an attempt to attain their new membership goal, the Jaycees and their wives' auxiliary will host a "Get Acquainted with Your Jaycees" night on Wednesday, October 20. This night will be devoted to potential members and their wives, and all are cordially invited.

The meeting will be held at the First Farmington Savings & Loan Association located on Orchard Lake Road at Grand River. The doors will be open at 7 p.m. for a "coffee hour", and the program will begin at 8 p.m. For further information, call Scott Cristler at 626-7628 or Jaycee President, Pat Novak, at 476-6815.

Noted Author To Speak Here

Robert C. W. Ettinger, world renowned author of "The Prospect of Impiety," whose wife, Elaine, teaches at the Middlebush Elementary School, will speak again in Farmington when the South Oakland County Branch of the Association for Childhood Education holds its November 18 dinner meeting at O. E. Dunkel Junior High School.

World wide interest in Mr.
Ettinger's extraordinary ideas of freeing the newly dead with the hope that science of the future can revive, restore, and rejuvenate the freezers continues in this week's issue of Life Magazine.

THE AUTHOR'S book and its proposals will be a part of part four of the currently running Life series, "Control of Life." A future issue of that magazine will also include a complete feature devoted to the subject.

Mr. Ettinger can be seen on television programs three times in the coming weeks.
The Merv Griffin Show, shown locally at 10 p.m. on Channel 50, will present the author as guest on Tuesday, October 5, and Wednesday, October 20. He will also appear on Channel 9 in an interview from Toronto conducted by Pierre Berton.
The date of the showing of that taped interview has not yet been announced.

Another article will appear in the next issue of "Fact" Magazine, "The Frozen Christian," an article by Mr. Ettinger, will soon appear in "The Christian Century," a religious weekly.
