Lady Of Mercy News

BY LINDA OEHLER

Junior Diana George, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edmund F. George of 14801 Vaughan, won first place in the speech report writing contest at the Detroit Student Press Association Oct. 9.

Diana wrote her story on main speaker Bud Guest's address entitled "Our Teens are Laughing." Mr. Guest is the star of two daily radio shows on WJR, "Sunny Side of the Street" and "People, Places, and Things."

The 1964-65 News Print, the school paper, won the DSFA First award at the convention. Earlier this year, the Catholic Press Association conferred a Publication of Distinction on the paper, and the Quill and Scroll newspaper critical service gave the News Print an International Honor Rating.

Junior and senior members of the Mercy Corps are offering

Flanders PTA
Fair Set Oct. 23

The Flanders School in Farmington Meadows is holding a School Fair on Saturday, October 23, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. There will be a country store, a handicraft booth, game room, Halloween booth, and many, many more things to interest children and adults alike. As a special added attraction, through the courtesy of The Cadillac Life Insurance Company, Captain Jolly of television fame will be there to delight the children.

There will be prizes for everyone. Come for lunch and meet Captain Jolly.

The proceeds from the Fair will go to supplement the Summer Library Program the school has carried on for the past two years. This program has proven to be highly successful and rewarding for the children.

Women's Civic Club
To Meet Oct. 21

On Thursday, October 21, at 8:30 p.m. the Women's Civic Club of Farmington will meet for their monthly meeting.

The meeting is to be held at the home of Mrs. Delores Bielby, 21273 Larkspur, in Farmington Meadows. Mrs. Shirley Longenecker will serve as a co-hostess.

During the business discussion Cancer Pads will be sewn so be sure to bring your needle and thread.

ing their spare time to tutor culturally deprived children in reading at various parochial schools throughout inner Detroit.

The girls will be working in affiliation with the Archdiocesan Opportunity Program, (AOP). This program is designed on a one-to-one student-teacher basis, providing a personal relationship between the student and the teacher considered necessary by the AOP.

For two hours every Saturday morning, from 9:30 to 11:30, the special classes will be conducted.

COMMENDATIONS

Nine seniors were awarded commendations for their performance on the National Merit Scholarship test. They are Nancy Colombo, Susan Kokoska, Linda Macunovich, Nadine Martynow, Susan Rahaley, Mary Regan, Susan Ricke, Judith Roosma, and Susan Willis.

CHORAL OFFICERS

New senior choral officers are Sandra Flesher, president; Kathleen Wilson, vice-president; Kathleen Callee, secretary; and Margaret Pais, treasurer.

Day and Night Road Race Set

STROMBECKER. The Name in American Road Racers, brings you a 1/12 scale set with working lights. Try this one for extra fun. Race at night! Turn on the house lights and watch these cars swirl around the over 1/2 mile figure 8 track. It's exciting, and it's a Ward's exclusive.

Your Grand Turismo Ferrari Berlinetta and Jaguar XKE, both brilliantly colored, roar off from a 1/2 mile start on to the 1/2-in. track and slide into the curves, up the hill in the obstacle track where only one car can go at a time. Both cars finely detailed by skilled craftsmen.

Complete set. GKE, Berlinetta, 2 thermostat controls for independent racing. Power pack, fencing, overpass supports and instruction booklet.
