ALTO: CINDY Abram, Linda Combes, Nancy Cosper.

Vocal Music Ensembles at Dunckel Set

At recent try-outs held at the O.E. Dunckel Junior High School, members for three vocal groups were chosen for the 1965-1966 school year.

Members of the Melodiers, a dancing and singing ensemble, are first sopranos, Dee Anderson, Lynn Goodwin, Bev Hatch, and Linda Oldershaw; second sopranos, Linda Acitelli, Cindy Davis, Debby Deiling, and Pat Lahey; altos, Sue Davidge, Barb Lennis, Denise Milne, and Jackie Polsdian; tenors, Doug Gilmour, Mark Kujawa, Dave Negri, Ron Oppert, Buzz Overfield, and Alan Valade; and basses, Chuck Button, Tony Garcia, Bob Geddes, Gary Gonzalez, Dave Thomas, and Bill Wachob.

The first appearance of the Melodiers will be at the Dunckel Open House on November 2. A featured number will be "Michael Row The Boat A Shore."

MEMBERS OF THE Duckettes, an all-girl ensemble, are: Linda Johnson, Cheryl Kilmer, Sally Martilla, Candy Mikula, Sue Mittle, Liz Morey, Cheryl Nielsen, Ellen Ralph, Barb Robbins, Rena Scituro, and Sheila Sorvari.

This year the Ducks and Dolls, a mixed octette, is composed of Tony Garcia, Lynn Goodwin, Mark Kujawa, Barb Lennis, Denise Milne, Linda Oldershaw, Buzz Overfield, and Bill Wachob.

All of these vocal groups are in full rehearsals for a show they will be presenting for the residents of the Eventide Home in Detroit on November 12, and they will soon begin rehearsing for their future appearance as featured performers for the eighth annual "Christmas in Song" at Dunckel.

WSU to Install New President

Several hundred representatives of universities, colleges and learned societies will take part in the inauguration ceremonies of Dr. William R. Keast when he is formally installed Thursday, October 28, as President of Wayne State University.

Ceremonies will be held at 2:30 p.m. in Detroit's Cobo Hall.

Dr. Keast succeeded Dr. Clarence B. Hilberry who retired after 13 years as head of the nation's 18th largest University.

A NATIVE OF Elmhurst, Illinois, Dr. Keast came to WSU from Cornell University where he served as vice president for academic affairs.

Traditionally, representatives are named by their alma mater or learned societies to represent them in the procession and ceremony. Participating from Farmington will be Jerome H. Brooks, Industrial Relations Research Association, 2980 Gilchrist, Farmington; and Robert M. Gringer, representing Paul Giddons, president, Hamline University, 28810 Halsted Rd., Farmington.

THE FARMINGTON READING CENTER has opened offices in the Metropolitan Office Building, 3221 Grand River Avenue in Farmington, and is offering tutoring service, private remedial programs and diagnostic testing for students of elementary age through college. Directors and owners of the new enterprise are (L to R) Lewis J. Kaplan and Al Leliderman. They specialize in development, corrective and remedial phases of tutoring with speed reading and modern methods of their popular programs. Arrangements can be made for tutoring appointments either at their office or in the student's home.

"Mr. Thomson please!"

They told me you had great ideas, Mr. Thomson. For example, these great convertible stretch pants can be worn with or without snap-in stirrups. Without the stirrups, they're the smooth, sleek pants you're so famous for. With them they give the extra taut and trim look I get only from marvelous fit. No wonder I always say, "Mr. Thomson, please!"
