EASY CONTEST RULES

1. Read these rules and each ad on this page carefully.
2. Each week of the football season ads will appear on this page containing the names of two teams playing each other over the weekend. These will be the only games considered.
3. On a separate sheet of paper, not this page, list the name of each merchant and your selection of the winner of each game directly after that of the merchant. Example: Farmington Hobby Shop — Minnesota.
4. In addition, you must give the scores of the two teams in the ads that request the score.
5. Be sure your name and address are on your entry. Only one entry per person.
6. All entries must be postmarked or delivered to the office of THE FARMINGTON ENTERPRISE, FOOTBALL CONTEST EDITOR, P.O. Box 435, 23623 Farmington Road, Farmington, Mich. By Saturday Noon Following Publication.
7. In case of tie the earliest postmark shall be declared the winner. The decision of the judges shall be final. Winners will be notified.
8. Employees of any newspaper and their families are not eligible to enter.
9. In order to be fair to all entries, previous first place winners are no longer eligible to enter.
10. To be eligible for the Merchants Bonus Jack Pot simply take your entry into any of the participating merchants, have it stamped or signed, then submit it to The Enterprise. Any winning entry so marked will share in the $6.00 Bonus. However, it is not necessary to have it marked to be a contest winner, only to share in the Jack Pot.

Bill Says: RAIDERS vs CHIEFS

It is a personal foul when any defensive player charges into or throws to the ground any opponent after the ball is clearly dead, either in or out-of-bounds, or after the player (including the passer) is obviously out of the play. A passer who is standing still or leading back is considered out of the play after the pass. The defense must make a definite effort to avoid charging in to him after it is clear that the ball has been thrown.
