

Wedding Takes Place In St. Matthews Church

A double ring, candlelight ceremony at St. Matthews Church, Livonia, was the setting for the October 2 marriage of Mrs. Joseph W. Sutscher to Joseph William Sutscher. Officiating at the ceremony was the Reverend John Grenfell. Parents of the newlyweds are Mr. and Mrs. Virchow Ridings, 20781 Farmington Road, Farmington, and Mrs. Joseph W. Sutscher of Long Island, New York, and the late Joseph Sutscher.

The bride chose a floor length gown of traditional bridal satin with a scalloped neckline, long sleeves, and chapel train. Seed pearls and chintilly lace accented the fitted bodice, controlled skirt and train. Her elbow length silk illusion veil was secured by a crown of seed pearls. To complete her outfit the bride wore a single strand of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom and carried a cascade of white roses, stephanotis, and ivy.

Maid of Honor was Miss Barbara Culler of Birmingham, a sorority sister of the bride. She chose a full length empire styled gown with a moss green long sleeved velvet bodice and vanilla crepe skirt. Her headpiece was a matching moss green velvet bow. She carried a cascade bouquet of bronze mums accented with yellow wheat and moss green ribbons. Mrs. PAT WELLS of Farmington and Miss Heidi Mathias of Birmingham were bridesmaids. Their gowns were identical to the Maid of Honor's. They carried cascade bouquets of bronze mums accented with wheat and moss green ribbons.

Miss Bonnie Keller, niece of the bridegroom, served as flower girl. Her gown was empire styled with a white velvet bodice and floor length white tulle skirt. She carried a white basket with an arrangement of bronze mums accented with moss ribbons.

Robert Cordry of Lansing served the bridegroom as best man. Ushers were Ben Ridings, brother of the bride, and Joseph Keller, brother-in-law of the bridegroom. Ring bearer was Billy Hirth of Northville, cousin of the bride.

Vocal selections, "Wedding Prayer," and "The Lord's Prayer" were sung by Miss Joyce Ray.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Ridings wore a pink crepe dress with matching lace jacket and accessories. Her corsage was white cymbidium orchids.

The bridegroom's mother chose a dress of gold crepe with an embroidered lace bodice and matching accessories. Her flowers were yellow sweetheart roses.

A BUFFET reception dinner was held at Idyl Wyld Golf Club immediately following the ceremony. Serving the wedding were Mr. Lorraine Hewitt of Milford, Mrs. Dorothy Fawcett of Louisville, Ohio, and Mrs. Alice Evans of Celina, Ohio, aunts of the bride. Presiding at the guest book were Miss Judy Ross of Sherwood, Ohio, and Miss Carol Davis of Lima, Ohio. Out of town guests came from New York, Ohio, Indiana, and Upper Michigan.

Following the reception the newlyweds left on a honeymoon to Pennsylvania and the Pocono Mountains. For traveling the bride chose a three-piece hunter green walking suit with black accessories.

The bride, a graduate of Farmington High School and Michigan State University, is presently teaching Home Economics at Farmington High School. Her husband, a graduate of Walt Whitman High School and Michigan State University, is employed with the Royal Oak City Planning Commission. The couple are now residing at 32350 Freedom Drive, Farmington.

Local De Molay to Meet in N'ville

Nat'l Campers and Hikers Assoc. Names Local Field Director

The appointment of Mrs. Marjorie Schukins of 25533 Medbury in Farmington as a field director for the National Campers and Hikers Association was announced today by State Director, Donald Woolworth, of Ohio.

Mrs. Schukins, who has long displayed a keen interest and outstanding ability in all phases of camping, will be responsible for developing the NCHA's program in Oakland County.

THE SCHUKINS first started camping 10 years ago. Today, she and her children, Sharon, 15, and Gary, 12, travel the highways and byways with their Tradewind tent trailer.

One of her first jobs will be to organize a local, self-governing chapter. The purpose of the chapter will be to plan and attend chapter, state, and national gatherings where members will make new and rekindle old friendships, show slides and movies, enjoy potluck dinners, swap campfire tales and recipes, share information about camping facilities and welcome newcomers to the expanding camping fraternity.

The organization has four distinct goals; they are: — to recommend improvements in camping and hiking facilities wherever the need exists; — to establish regional centers from which members unfamiliar with the area may obtain reports on camping trails and game laws; — to work toward the conservation of natural resources and — to provide a friendly atmosphere of camping among the members.

Long known as the "Friendliest People in the World," anyone with a normal interest in camping and nature is encouraged to join. The NCHA invites camping families to contact Mrs. Schukins to join the outdoors fun and fellowship. If interested in finding out more about NCHA please feel free to contact her at 474-9459.
