The children's Halloween party went off with a bang. The day was lovely and about 95 children and adults enjoyed games and prizes. After a lunch of hot dogs, donuts and cider, the kids took turns bobbing for apples in some cases for apples. The general comment was, "It's not as easy as it looks."

There were spoon races for 5-12 and boys came out ahead in both. The little tots played kindergarten games and also had regular races for which prizes were given. They also received suckers and balloons for attending.

A lot of confidence goes to the Social Committee and chairman Lillian Jack for proving that even though we're not many we sure know how to have a good time. Also thanks to JoAnn Kinjorski for offering the use of her driveway for the party.

HAPPY BIRTHDAYS are in order for October for all of the Kelly boys. Ross was five on Oct. 19, and Sean and Kevin turned 6 and 2 respectively on Oct. 25. Each boy had a celebration. Ross had seven guests who enjoyed themselves making birthday hats and playing pin the tail on the donkey and musical chairs. Kevin had a short get-together for cake and ice cream and Sean had a party the next day for a few of his classmates.

At this writing I hope Stacy Kinjorski of S. Duncan has passed the crisis period in her bout with pneumonia. She was struck down just a day before the Halloween party. Also on the flu or drippy nose list are Ross and Sean Kelly, Donna and Greg George and Fred Martin. Hope they can soon get out of bed and back to school.

My daughter Debbie, 4, had a pretty bad accident last Monday. She got vegetables on the range was knocked off and scalded her right arm. But, boy how children bounce back! We have several newcomers here and among them are Ceri and Peg Dando of Brookplace Ct. Their family consists of two boys, Johnathon, 7 and Jeremy who was 6 on September 31.

The Dandos are new arrivals from Surrey, England, and lived in Royal Oak for a short time before moving here. Ceri is a Resident Engineer for the Simms Motor Co. of England. Peg was a free-lance photographer in England but has settled down to getting their new home into shape while Ceri has been off to London Motor show for two weeks. In their spare time the Dandos love to go camping. In fact this summer they took their camper and visited almost all of Michigan.

Artist's Works Now On Display

Jessie Hudson, art teacher at Plymouth High School, is the Artist of the Month for November at the Universal-Unitarian Church of Farmington. Mrs. Hudson has both paintings and mosaics on display. The paintings feature her favorite hilly landscapes and she frequently uses as subject matter remembered and romanticized scenes, often from her native Scotland. The mosaics, on the other hand, Mrs. Hudson considers simply for design and color rather than treating specific subjects. She constructs them from varied materials, both unconventional and traditional. Mrs. Hudson is a graduate of Eastern Michigan University and holds both B.S. and M.A. degrees in fine arts. Her work will be on view at the church's Adams Hall throughout the month of November.
