

Blue Star Mothers Chapter 49 Holds Anniversary Luncheon

The Blue Star Mothers of America, Chapter No. 49 of Farmington, had their anniversary luncheon in October and a large appetite was brought by all for the potluck.

Guests were present from several chapters and the impressive list included the President of the Department of Michigan, Charlotte Weidell, and the President of the VFW Auxiliary, Mrs. Kutchke.

FOR THE THIRD year in a row, Mrs. Ethel Lint's son invited the Chapter to use his lovely basement for the anniversary luncheon. For those who have never been below the Mason-Dixon line, the Florida atmosphere complete with banana tree is the Chapter's annual trip south. For those who have been south it stirs beautiful memories. There was very little business at the regular October meeting. Two Chapter ladies were at the National Convention of Blue Star Mothers of America which was held in Miami from October 19 to 29, they were Pansy Hatzel and Irene Kreuger. Irene is second Vice President of the Department of Michigan.

The November card party has been moved to Thursday, Nov. 11, and is being held at Catherine Byrne's home.

Mothers are asked to say a prayer and send a card to Mrs. Lint's husband who has had surgery at Annapolis hospital in Wayne.

Mary Fox is baking the November birthday cake.

Hill & Dale to Present Nationally Known Speaker

The time for Christmas is approaching. To assist in planning, the Hill and Dale Garden Club has invited Zella Wyatt Schulke from Cleveland, Ohio to present a lecture and demonstration entitled "Create for Christmas."

This event will be Thursday,

November 18, at 1 p.m. at the Franklin Community Church in Franklin Village.

Nationally Mrs. Schulke is a well known flower arranger, lecturer, teacher and author. She brings a fresh approach to the traditional way with flowers, and creative expression to the contemporary aspects of flower arranging as an art form. Her experience covers many years of teaching at the Cleveland Garden Center, conducting a television flower arranging program, and extensive lecturing in nearly every state in the United States. She has lectured and taught short courses at the universities of Florida, North Carolina, Georgia, Oklahoma, Iowa, Michigan State and Pennsylvania State.

MRS. SCHULKE is a nationally accredited flower show judge, holds a Master Certificate, and has served on the Board of Garden Club of Ohio, Inc. for many years, in a number of chairmanships. She is a past president of the Ohio Council of Flower Show Judges. As an exhibitor she has won blue ribbons and tri-colors in Boston, Chicago, Philadelphia, New York and Cleveland flower shows. She is the author of three books. One of special interest is entitled "A Treasury of Christmas Decorations." Tickets are $1.75 and can be obtained from: Mrs. Joseph Ziska, 28040 Peppermill, Farmington, GR. 4-7281, and Mrs. Eugene Saley, 28085 Glenbrook, Farmington, GR. 4-5201.
