On October 14 I was a guest at the "No Work Luncheon" at the Rounda Inn. The lunch was delicious, with many dishes to choose from. It was a "thank you" for all who trained and put in a full week helping at "Day Camp Arapahoe." I was very pleased to attend. Camp Director Mrs. Georgia Dennis

Starved Air Is Harmful Says Dealer

Dry air is "starved air," and it leaves its marks all over the home, according to Robert Lussenden, our local General 990 Power Humidifier dealer.

During the cold weather season, forced warm air heat dries everything in the home and evidence of its damaging effects are seen everywhere. Plants droop and require more than usual watering. Joints on furniture become loose and squeaky; rugs and drapes become "resistant" and show wear quicker, with plaster cracks becoming more pronounced.

EQUALLY HARMFUL are the effects of "starved air" on health and comfort. Dry air has a low moisture content and requires a higher degree of heat to make one feel comfortable, and is responsible for increased fuel bills. Continual hot, dry air affects health, is responsible for dry skin and irritated throats and noses.

Proper humidification in the home prevents these injurious and harmful effects and is a safeguard and investment, rather than an expense, protecting home and health plus assurance of complete comfort.

The new General 990 power humidifier is a delight for homeowners in that it has no moving parts — no fan, pump, motor, spray, or float to wear out. It delivers adequate moisture for 99-100 of all homes and can be regulated to deliver just the right amount of pure water vapor your home requires. Lussenden Plumbing and Heating, dealer for the General 990, has models on display at 30740 W. 12 Mile Rd.

and our camp was very good, and hopes you'll even now think about helping this summer. Seems like too soon, but training time comes around fast. Others attending were Mrs. Bridget Reagan, Trudy Hornack, Jane Matz, Lanie Thomas, Esther Hoffman, Vivian Erickson, Alfreda Gorgone, Ruth Flew, Marianne Blondest, Lil Hines, Lillian and leader Mrs. Phyllis Lockhart and their Investiture Party for six incoming girls, and their mothers. The seven old members welcomed the new in a forest fantasy. Coffee, cider and cookies were served. New members are Mary Plagens, Loretta Plagens, Vickie Emmert, Renee Orion, Donna DuBue, and Mickie Martin.

JUNIOR TROOP 217 under the leadership of Glenna Hulett and Mrs. Jean Seeburger started off their meeting with a "Welcome 1st to our Troop" cookout for the new Junior girls joining the troop. The girls hiked to the city park for grilled pocket stew for supper and enjoyed delicious "somebody" for dessert. Games were played and songs sung as girls got acquainted with each other.

Our little faithful scribe of last year called with first news of her troop. She is Pattie Simmons of Junior Troop 150. They enjoyed a hayride at Centaur Stables on October 27. Their cookout was hot dogs, cider, and donuts. Sue Hershey and Pattie Simmons fell off the wagon, with only injured pride, and all had a good laugh. Mrs. Simmons ended the ride covered with hay.

Mrs. Rubin Halperin (Miriam), 34760 Freedom Rd., has been very busy. Cards will cheer her. I know. We hope she is feeling better by now.

THIS IS IMPORTANT to you who are delegates. The meeting of the Farmington Troop 17 at 7:30. Come prepared to discuss problems presented in your workbook. This will be brought up at "Neighborhood meetings" so please attend. The delegates meeting will be held at Michigan Bell Telephone Company, 22500 Northwestern Highway.

Calendar Chairmen, if you haven't got your calendars, please pick them up. For the Farmington area Mrs. Joan Jamieson, 23035 Hayden, 478-4213, is Chairman. Remember, sales don't start till November 15. Hope for lots of good luck selling.

Junior Troop 365 is in full swing. Mrs. Norma Larsen and Lia Carruthers as leaders. A cookout at Proud Lake for girls is November 6. Mothers' meeting was held on September 22 with following on Mother's Committee: Mrs. Blanche McKay and Mrs. Arlene Lueder as Phone and Driver Chairmen; Planning and Arranging of events, Mrs. Dorothy Roe; General Chairmen, Mrs. Neil Herman; Crafts, Mrs. Dora Walde and Mrs. Charlotte Waskowski; Cookie Chairmen, Mrs. Ann Leach; and Mrs. Valerie Balze, Calendar Chairmen. Mothers' meeting was held at Mrs. Norma Larsen's home.
