Pat and Roland Clouse and family of Laurewood traveled to Lima, Ohio for four days to visit with Pat's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Shields.

George Black of Kirby, who was in New York on business recently, found himself stranded on the 56th floor of the Park Hotel during the East coast "blackout" last week.

Orville and Elaine Rittinger of Meadowlark left sons Scott and Tim in the care of Aunt Linda Haisch and had themselves a gay time attending homecoming weekend at the Capital University in Ohio which is Orville's Alma Mater.

They were surprised when they returned to find Elaine's mother, Mrs. Edna Haisch of Nebraska paying them a surprise visit.
Dick and Arlene Strane of Laurewood entertained old friends John and Jean Michael and their five children who make their home in Cheyenne. They were no sooner settled for the five day visit than the Michael children promptly came down with the mumps. Monthly card parties for both gave and gals are in full swing. Bridge Club 3 met at the home of Mary Wischmeyer of Meadowlark. Included were Les Juskie, Luc Grenier, Betty Bottle, Jean Osborne, Helen Jakowski and substitutes Stephanie Burns and Marion Orol. Winners were Stephanie, Helen and Betty.

GATHERING AT POLY Lawsh's Meadowlark home was Pinocchio Club 1. Trying for prizes were Barb Dozer, LaDonna Black, Pat Gibb, Grace Carlin, Elaine Flynn, Kay Thomas and Lee Majestic. Winners were LaDonna Black, Kay Thomas and Elaine Flynn. Singing, Happy Birthday, the girls surprised Kay who earlier enjoyed a birthday dinner with her son and daughter-in-law.

Pinocchio Club 2 met at the home of Bev Babik on Robinson. Enjoying themselves were Pat Clouse, Betty Dorsch, Mary Ann Roberts, Donna Walbaum, and Joan Stahl. Subbing were LaDonna Black and Pat Gibb. Prize winners were Bev and LaDonna.

Lee and Clint Justice of Laurewood entertained a mixed Bridge group on Saturday night. Enjoying the cards, conversation and dessert were Bob and Lu Grenier, Bill and Ginny Oakes, who came in from Lansing, and Chuck and Mary Wischmeyer who sat in for Ken and Jean Osborne who were out celebrating Ken's birthday.

About forty Meadowlark teenagers enjoyed a dance party at Flanders School which was arranged by Jerry Bogoske the Scout Master. This was a treat for all the scouts who did such a fine job on Halloween patrolling the streets and being of general help with the youngsters. Besides dancing the teens enjoyed hot dogs, chips and soda pop.

THE CUB SCOUTS were also busy with activities and the Flanders School was ablaze with lights during the Space Derby. Grand prize winner of the event was Bill Longnecker of Den 11.

Walt Jaske, Cub Master, welcomed new cubs, John Burns, Kevin Bush, Howard Feder, Dan Hamilton, Tim Noble, Roy Smith, David Wheat, Gerry Murray, Steven Mayer, John Ford, Mark Tompkins, Dale Zarycki, Mike Brennan, Raymond Salo and Robert Salo. Each Cub was presented with his Bobcat Pin.

GABBERS MEET

The Gabbers met the evening of November 11 at the home of Mrs. John Muir. Co-hostesses were Mrs. Harry Peets and Mrs. Albert Gain.
A chop-suey dinner was served to the 23 present. Elections of officers for 1966 was followed by a social evening.

Several cocktail parties preceded the Saturday night dance at St. Gerald's. Among them was one hosted by North and Helen Jankowski who entertained John and Stephanie Burns and Ted and Clair Puleon.

Lu Grenier of Laurewood opened her home to members of Guild 7, St. Gerald's Women's Council. The ladies served cancer pads during the business meeting which included the appointment of guild officers for the coming year, Norm Mellon as president; Theresa McLaughlin, secretary; and Mary Wischmeyer, treasurer. The meeting ended with dessert and coffee.

THE FARMINGTON Women's Club will meet at the home of Clair Pidgeon, 33240 Flanders on Thursday, November 18 at 8 p.m. Co-hostess will be Lucia Lieber and the gala are planning to work on cancer pads during the business meeting.

Mary Ann and Tom Roberts of Robinson announced the birth of Thomas Christopher Roberts II, on November 6 at Providence Hospital. Young Tom weighed in at 8 pounds and 5 ounces.

Our deepest sympathies go to Pat and Donna Hanson in the death of their three week old son Nelson.

Scott Strane makes our sick list this week by letting the flu bug get him down and Tommy Clouse has pneumonia.

A joint meeting of the Farmington Meadows and Farmington Oaks Homeowners Associations was held at the Flanders School. Mr. Harrison, Supt. of the Farmington Schools, spoke on the Special School Election.

We have been asked questions by Meadowlark concerning several problems in the subdivision and were told by Association President Bob Smith that a booklet with answers to many of these questions will be distributed during December. However anyone with questions pertaining to Meadows business may contact Bob at 476-0837 or Norbert Jankowski at 476-3921. Also those interested in attending board meetings should contact their district representative or Mr. Jankowski.

ALL 603 TEACHERS in the Farmington Public Schools were surprised last Tuesday morning. Upon arriving to begin the day, each teacher found a shiny red apple waiting on the desk. "Apples for the Teachers" —a put on the back from the Farmington Kiwanis Club, speaking for the community, was a highlight of American Education Week. Receiving his apple from Kiwanis President Al McGaw was Lloyd Smith.
