LINDA J. HOERLE

Linda J. Hoerle of 26214 Dundalk Lane, Farmington Township, passed away on November 20 at McPherson Community Health Center, Howell, Michigan after an automobile accident in Livingston County. She was 17 years of age, born August 29, 1948, the daughter of Otis K. and Jean C. Wilson Hoerle. A member of the Senior Class of North Farmington High School, she had been active in the French Club and choral groups. She was a past member of the Blizzard Ski Club, and was very active in the Youth Fellowship Group of the Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church of which she was also a member. In addition to the school and church activities, she was employed by the J. L. Hudson Company of Northland Center. Services were 1 p.m. Tuesday, November 23, 1965 at the Heene - Sundquist Funeral Home with the Rev. Robert E. Horton of Trinity Evangelical United Brethren Church officiating. Interment was in Grand Lawn Cemetery.

Surviving Miss Hoerle are her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Otis K. Hoerle and her brothers and sisters, Thomas K., Mark A., Cheryl A., Debra L. and Terri L. Her grandparents, Mrs. Myrtle Hoerle and Mr. Hugh Wilson, also survive.

MINNIE B. SCHELLENBERG
Mrs. Minnie B. Schellenberg of 3707 Academy, Dearborn, passed away suddenly at her residence on November 17. She was 83 years of age. Born September 20, 1882 in Detroit, she was married to Ernest Schellenberg, who preceded her in 1955. While they made their home on 13 Mile Road, Farmington Twp., Mrs. Schellenberg has made her home in Dearborn the past eight years, where she was a member of Hope Lutheran Church of Dearborn. Services were held Saturday, November 20, 1965 at 1 p.m. from the Heene-Sundquist Funeral Home with the Rev. Dan Holm of Hope Lutheran Church officiating. Interment was in North Farmington Cemetery.

Surviving Mrs. Schellenberg are her son, Charles of Dearborn and sister, Martha Schman of Detroit.

Seaman Brian Lange
Assigned to Duty
Seaman Brian Lange, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward W. Lange of 23015 Maple Avenue in Farmington, recently completed basic training in the United States Coast Guard, Cape May, New Jersey, and now has successfully passed the Seaman's Apprentice requirements in Chesler, Ohio where he is stationed.

Seaman Lange is a graduate of Farmington High School, Class of 1963, and enlisted in the U.S. Coast Guard in August of this year.

SP-5 Jerry Antle, 28-year-old son of Mrs. Gladys Clark, formerly of 21214 Ontario in Farmington, is currently stationed with the U.S. Armed Forces in Viet Nam. He is a sergeant with a demolition crew of the 328th Engineer Battalion, 101st Airborne Division. Antle was one of the soldiers recently given the ticklish job of detecting old land mines buried by French forces some 20 years ago in Viet Nam and disarming them.

THREE LOCAL EDUCATORS at Beechview Elementary School in Farmington are taking vital roles in the planning of an upcoming Michigan Education Association conference. Pictured above (l. to r.) are Beechview teachers Richard Rutter and Florence Coveyou with Beechview Principal Kenneth Lachman in a planning meeting. It is very unusual for three educators from a single school to have important roles in the region-wide planning of an MEA conference.

Jaycees Set Christmas Tree Sale

The Farmington Junior Chamber of Commerce has announced that they are having a Christmas tree sale to take place between December 11 and 22.

Al Stutsen, chairman of the tree sale committee, stated, "We have over 400 of the finest Scotch Pines available. The trees will be of all sizes and will be priced right to meet the needs of every pocket book."

Proceeds from the sale will be used to aid in community development programs during the coming year. The sale will take place on Grand River between The Farmington Medical Center and The Quik Food Store. Hours will be 9 a.m. on weekends and 12-9 on week days.

Stutsen also stated, "If there are any trees left over from the sale, the Jaycees will distribute them to needy families in the community."

Three on MEA Committee
The 1965 MEA Regional Conference are recent history and the Conference Commission already has plans under way for 1966.

Cecil Elmore, Assistant Executive Secretary for MEA, directed a recent workshop entitled Command Performance for those assuming leadership roles next year. The meeting was held on November 19 and 20 at the MEA Conference Center, St. Mary's Lake, Battle Creek.

25th Anniversary

How can you be sure you'll have enough money for Christmas shopping next year?

force yourself

MANUFACTURERS BANK CHRISTMAS CLUB

NEXT CHRISTMAS IF YOU WANT	DEPOSIT EVERY OTHER WEEK
$ 25.....	$ 1.00
50.....	2.00
100.....	4.00
250.....	10.00
500.....	20.00

If you have to force yourself a little to start saving for next year's Christmas shopping, think how it will take the pressure off when you're finished.

Decide now how much money you'll need for 1966 holiday expenses, and begin putting that amount aside in a Manufacturers Bank Christmas Club Account. Then, when Christmas, 1966 rolls around you'll have receipts instead of bills.

An ounce of force every other week, can take off pounds of pressure next year.
