

Arkites Club Announces Year's Plans

Arkites, the couples club of the First Presbyterian Church, introduced its steering committee for 1946. Its members are Mr. and Mrs. Robert Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Riggs, Mr. and Mrs. David Clyde, all of the Kendallwood - Westbrook and Mr. and Mrs. James Brush of Farmington.

The schedule of events for the coming year includes a progressive dinner on Friday, February 4, managed by Mr. and Mrs. John Passfield and Mr. and Mrs. Hal McDavid; a mystery Cruise on April 1, with Co-captains Mr. and Mrs. Charles Davis and Mr. and Mrs. Larry Sharp; a talent show on October 7, directed by Mr. and Mrs. Al Little and Mr. and Mrs. Don McEachin; and a Christmas smorgasbord on December 2 with Mr. and Mrs. Edward Mossamer and Mr. and Mrs. William Tamminga as Major Doms.

CHANCES OF GETTING the same license plate number two years in a row are pretty great but Mrs. Dorothy Benedict, a teacher in the Clarenceville High School Special Education Department, drew repeat figures which she says makes the job of remembering her license number just that much easier. Mrs. Benedict, who lives at 2467 Genesee in Southfield, has purchased her plates well ahead of the deadline time for the past two years. She doesn't like to stand in line.

Local Gun Club Participates In Nat'l Program

More than 260 hunters took advantage of the National Rifle Association of America Sighting Day held by the Multi-Lake Gun Club of Farmington.

The shooting club is one of several hundred throughout the country which inaugurated the nation-wide sighting-in program. This year as a service to the nation's hunters, NRA club ranges were opened to help them check their shooting equipment and to increase safe and accurate shooting in the hunting fields.

The club has received a National Rifle Association Public Service Award from the Association's national headquarters for participating in this vital public service to the nation's hunters. The nation-wide program will be conducted annually in the future.
