Assumes Post In Birmingham

George L. Rickey of 21985 Leyte in Farmington has been appointed personnel director for the City of Birmingham. The appointment will become effective on January 3, 1966.

Mr. Rickey is currently employed by Allstate Insurance Company as a Personnel Assistant, primarily responsible for the complete personnel function of the claims department for the Michigan regional office. In this capacity, he has the responsibility for all of the various phases of personnel work. He has been employed by Allstate Insurance Company since August 20, 1956.

Mr. Rickey received a B.A. degree from Michigan State University in 1955. He had entered college after having worked for the City of Flint as an admitting officer at Hurley Hospital. His employment with that organization covered the period 1947 to 1952.

"Ice Block" Ad Wins Commercial Award

An "Ice Block" television commercial produced by Stockwell & Marcus advertising agency at WJBK-TV for the Bruce Wigle Plumbing and Heating Company on American-Standard heating units has won two awards in the American TV Commercials Festival (New York), announced Wallace A. Ross, Festival Director.

The awards, in the "Local and Under $200" category and a "Certificate of Recognition," were presented in Detroit at a meeting of the Adcraft Club by Ross to Kenneth G. Wigle, president of Bruce Wigle Plumbing and Heating Company, and James C. Lewis of Farmington, Stockwell & Marcus Radio-TV Director. James C. Lewis lives at 22295 Baintree Road in Farmington.
