Community Church Plans Family Christmas Programs

"Christmas with Christ" is the emphasis of the Christmas Season at Southfield, Community Church, 222 E. Southfield (between Beech and Inkster, north of Eight Mile), according to Pastor Raymond Bayne.

First event was a Christmas Concert by the combined choirs of over one hundred youth. Second event will be the Annual Bible School Family Christmas Program on December 19 at 7 p.m. This will include all the departments of the Sunday Bible School and their parents. Heart of the program will be a telling of the Christmas story itself by Mrs. Raymond Bayne, using large and beautifully colored diagraph figures. Each of the departments will share in the telling by having parts in the various stages of the story. Following Carol-singing by the audience candy treats will be given to all the children.

DECORATIONS for this lovely event have been prepared by Mrs. Marjorie Pike, Mrs. Arlene Miles, and Mrs. Doreen Mardigan. Mrs. Pike is chairman of the Program Committee, arranging the program for the evening.

The third event will be a Christmas Worship Service at 11 p.m., Christmas Eve, in the form of a Christmas Candle.

N.F. Baptist Ch. Sets Services For Holidays
 December 19, at 7 p.m., the North Farmington Baptist Church is having its Christmas Party. It will be mainly a Sunday School program. Two plays are scheduled by children in the first through 4th grades. The Junior Choir of 15 members will present their songs and the Senior Choir will follow. There will be refreshments after the program and the nursery will be open.

The annual Candlelight Service, a Service of Candles and Carols, will be held on December 24, Christmas Eve. This will be from 7:45 p.m.

On December 31, there will be a New Year's Eve Service at the Church from 8-9 p.m. An evening of fun and fellowship follows, at the home of one of the hostesses, Mrs. Ruth Goodwin and Mrs. Marion Tanton. A Midnight Potluck Buffet will be served.

Announce Christmas Services At First Methodist Church

Extensive plans have been made for the worshipful remembrance of the birth of Jesus Christ—the King at First Methodist Church of Farmington during this Christmas Season.

Services will begin with the Sunday morning worship on December 19 at 9:15 and 10:40 a.m. Christmas Anthems will be sung by both the Chancel Choir and the Wesley Choir, and the Christmas message by Reverend Richard T. Markham will be on the theme, "Celebrating a Birthday." Nursery care will be available for babies and young children at both these services.

Sunday evening, December 19, at 5 o'clock is the time set for the Annual Christmas Concert. The Chancel Choir, Carol and Wesley Choirs will sing many of the beloved carols and anthems that are so much a part of this Christmas Season.

FOLLOWING THE program refreshments will be served by the ladies of the Woman's Society of Christian Service. Nursery care will be available for young children.

Christmas Eve Services on December 24 will begin with the Annual Family Candlelight Service at 7:30 p.m. which is a service planned to appeal to all members of the family. Favorite carols will be sung and each person present will be given a candle used in lighting the service. Nursery care will be available.

The Christmas Eve Candlelight Communion Service will commence at 11 p.m. This will be a quiet service providing an opportunity for reflection and rededication to the Lord Jesus Christ, whose birthday we commemorate at this season of the year. A warm welcome is extended to every member of the community to share in these Christmas services at First Methodist Church of Farmington.

Mary Diane Bukowski, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bukowski of 19180 Murry Hill and student of Our Lady of Mercy high school has been cited as one of the outstanding students of high school English in the country. The National Council of Teachers of English has named her a 1965 national winner in its annual Achievement awards competition.

Last spring a committee of English teachers from the high school nominated Diane to represent Mercy in the competition. The nation's schools nominated almost 8,500 students for the NCTE citation. Of that number, 837 finalists were chosen from 50 states, the District of Columbia, and American Preparatory Schools Abroad.

Antioch Luth. Announces Its Christmas Sched.

The following schedule of events for the Christmas Season has been announced:
 Sunday, December 19, 9:30 a.m., Annual Sunday Church School Christmas program for the Beginner and Primary Departments.
 7:00 p.m., A Christmas Carol Festival. The final service of the Advent season series, "Adventures in Worship."
 Friday, December 24, 7:30 and 11 p.m., traditional Christmas Eve Services. The Family Christmas Service at 7:30; the Midnight Candlelight Service beginning at 11. Both Services will feature special music by the Senior Choir.
 Sunday, December 26, 8:15 and 11 a.m., St. Stephen, Martyr, Festival Service.
 Friday, December 31, 8 p.m., Annual New Year's Eve Watch-night Service of personal prayer and commitment.
 Sunday, January 2, 8:15 and 11 a.m., Christmas-tide Service of Holy Communion.

First Baptist Church of Farmington will be the site of two traditional Christmas events during the next week. On Sunday evening, December 19, at 7 p.m., the Adult Choir will present John W. Peterson's latest Christmas cantata, "The Wonder of Christmas," states Harold D. West, Director of Music at this Baptist.

This wonderful moving portrayal of the Christmas story in song and narration will be a presentation long to remember, and should prove to be a fitting beginning to the Christmas season.

The soprano soloists are Miss Judith Kawa and Miss Joyce Ray; bass soloist is Robert Murphy and the tenor solo will be sung by Mr. Harold West. Narration will be delivered by Pastor Walter Ballagh.

THE ANNUAL Sunday School Christmas program will be presented on Wednesday evening, December 22, at 7:30 p.m. Children from all departments will take part in this presentation, and the evening will be climaxed by the Christmas pageant written, directed and produced by Mrs. Dorothy Wright.

Our special Christmas worship service will be held this Sunday, December 19, at 11 a.m. All are most cordially invited to come and share in these Christmas services at First Baptist Church of Farmington, located at the junction of Farmington Road and Shawansee Avenue.
