Thank
You!

Two little words — important — you bet they are. We use them year around. We're big enough to remember little things like that.

We remember big things too, like 4% Interest on Savings Accounts and no Service Charges on Personal Checking Accounts, with a minimum balance of $250 ($1000 on Business Accounts).

The biggest thing yet is our 4 1/2% Time Savings Certificates. Just ask us — we're big enough to serve, yet small enough to listen.

'Christmas in Song' Concert To be Presented at

The Vocal Music Department of the O. E. Dunckel Junior High School will present their Eighth Annual "Christmas in Song" on Friday, December 17, and Saturday, December 18, at 8 p.m.

This Christmas concert, under the direction of Eddy E.
Ellegood will feature the one-hundred and eighty-five voices of the Mixed, Girls', and Boys' Choir.

"CHRISTMAS MAGIC", the traditional opening theme will feature the Mixed Choir, and open the setting for the cantata, "Song Of Christmas." This cantata, written by Roy Rindwald, relives the glorious birth of the Christ child in narration and song. Soloist for the cantata will be Sally Martilla, Lynn Goodwin, Linda Oldershaw and Tony Garcia.

The sixty-five voices of the Boys' Choir will sing, "You're All I Want For Christmas," arranged by Moore-Ellis; "My Favorite Things," by Richard Rodgers; "The Little Drummer Boy," arranged by Simeone; and "Christmas Comes Again," arranged by Ringwald.

SPECIAL GROUPS heard during the fourth, fifth and sixth portions of the concert will include the Dunclekettes, an all girl ensemble. This group will perform a medley containing the songs, "Here Comes

Pioneer Club Sets Yule Party

The Pioneer Golden Age Club of Farmington, which is affiliated with the National Council of Senior Citizens, Washington, D.C., will hold its second annual Christmas Party on Wednesday, December 22, at St.
Alexander's Social Hall, 27835 Shiawassee, between Middlebelt and Inkster Roads.

A pot-luck luncheon will be served at 12 noon, and there will be an exchange of Christmas gifts. All senior citizens are welcome.

"Santa Claus" and "Santa Claus Is Comin' To Town." The Guys and Dolls, a mixed octette, performing and dancing to "The Christmas Song" by Mel Tor-me, and "Snow, Snow, Beautiful Snow" arranged by Simeone. In dance and song the Boys' Ensemble will present a lively treatment of "Jingle Bell Rock" written by Beal-Boothe.

With the singing of "White Christmas", the Girls' Choir will open their portion of "Christmas in Song." Other numbers performed by the Girls' Choir will include "Christmas in My Heart" by Ray Madson; "Carol Of The Bells" by Wilhousky, and "O Bambino" arranged by Harry Simeone.

Also featured during this Christmas Concert will be the voices of the Melodiers. This singing and dancing ensemble will perform the following songs: "Christmas Calypso" arranged by Walter Ehret, "Carol of the Star" written by Harry Simeone, and "Holly Jolly Christmas" by Johnny Marks.

The voices of the Mixed Choir will once again be heard in the final section of the concert.
"Special Thoughts For Christmas", a medley arranged by Mr. Ellegood, will be featured in this section of the concert.
Other numbers will be "Do You Hear What I Hear", arranged by Simeone, and "I Believe", arranged by Hawley Aides.

Serving as accompanist will be Janet Greene. The narrator will be Douglas Dalgleish. The setting for the concert will be under the direction of Lorraine Davis, the lighting under the direction of Robert Brown and the sound under the direction of Louie Beall.

The public, parents and students are all invited to attend this "Christmas in Song". Tickets may be purchased at the door or from any of the choir members. The time for the concert has been set for 8 p.m.

120 Complete JC Aux Baby Sitting Clinic

The Farmington Jaycee Auxiliary wound up a very successful Babysitting Clinic in November.

The clinic, which concluded after five consecutive sessions,
