Nancy Damaschke Is Bride Of Curtis B. Semanson

Nancy Lynne Damaschke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. Damaschke, 24905 Glen Orchard, Farmington, became the bride of Curtis B. Semanson, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. Semanson, 2753 Golfside, Ypsilanti, on November 20, at Gloria Dei Lutheran Church.

The Reverend Richard Jesse officiated at the 6 p.m. service. The bride, given in marriage by her parents, wore a white peau de soie full length gown with bodice of re-embroidered lace and lace edged scalloped train. Her bouquet was a long crescent of white carnations, orchids and stephanotis.

Beverly Callahan, attired in a floor length gown with blue velvet bodice and white brocade skirt, was matron of honor. She carried a bouquet of white cymbidium orchids with lavender and blue accents. BRIDESMAIDS, wearing gowns like that of the matron of honor, were Alice McKenzie, sister of the bridegroom; Kevin Anderson, cousin of the bride; Marilyn Hennessy, Margo Dart, and Patti Ellerholtz, friends of the bride; and Kathy Volpe, cousin of the bride. Their bouquets were crescents of white Fuji mums with lavender and blue accents.

David Cameron of Royal Oak served as best man. Ushers were Roger Damaschke, brother of the bride; Larry McKenzie, brother-in-law of the bridegroom; and George Webb, cousin of the bridegroom. Kristi Anderson, cousin of the bride, wearing a floor length gown of royal blue velvet and carrying a basket of white rose petals, was flower girl. Barry Long, cousin of the bridegroom, was ring bearer.

After a reception at Glen Oaks Country Club, the couple departed for a two weeks' wedding trip to Nassau. They will make their home in Ypsilanti.

Lady Of Mercy News

By LINDA OEHLER
On Dec. 18, a Christmas party was given for the children in the St. Boniface tutoring program by 30 Mercy Corps members and approximately 20 boys from Catholic Central high school. They tutor the children on Saturdays from 9:30 to 11 a.m.

At the Christmas party, CC sophomore Bob Bretz played Santa Claus and distributed gifts to the tutees. Candy canes, cookies, and pop were among the refreshments served.

The student tutors are operating in affiliation with the AOP, (Archdiocesan Development Program) with Miss Mary Wier as the tutoring program's co-ordinator.

The tutors work on a one-to-one student-teacher basis considered necessary by the AOP as it provides the tutees with a feeling of personal interest in them.

Sister Ellen Mary R.S.M. of Mercy is the supervisor at St. Boniface, with seniors Vicki Ponkowski and Mary Wier as the student chairmen of OLM and CC respectively.

IN A MOOD OF "Twilight and Tinsel," juniors, seniors, and alumnae will dance with their escorts at the annual A-Ball Thursday, December 30, at Veterans Memorial building from 9-12 p.m.

Danny Baker and his band will provide the entertainment for the formal dance. The theme, chosen by the Student Council, suggested by Junior Janice Baran who will receive a free ticket.

The tickets, designed by senior Sue Willis, are on sale for $3.50.

Since 1959, the traditional Alumnae Ball has welcomed back former Mercy students. All graduates may attend and invitations have been sent to girls of the past three graduating classes. Prior to 1959, the dance was called the Anniversary Ball and commemorated the founding of OLM. Patron donations of $1 were accepted from couples and organizations.
