Visiting Pat and Roland Clouse of Laurelwood were Pat's parents Mr. and Mrs. John Shields of Lima, Ohio. From here they are traveling on to Florida. They will spend the winter months there. The Clouse's also entertained two boys from England for Thanksgiving dinner, Daryl Hieneman and Jack Tucker.

Traveling to Lexington, Kentucky to visit friends were Jim and Delores Bieby and family.

Dick and Shirley Longnecker and family of Kirby journeyed to Indiana to visit Dick's mother, Mrs. Charles Longnecker. Mr. and Mrs. Ted Pidgeon of Flanders visited friends in Chester, Penn. then went on to Manville, New Jersey for the occasion of Ted's sister's 25th wedding anniversary.

Visiting the Ray Jeffers of Flanders were Dorothy's parents Mr. and Mrs. Peter Jelenic of Tennessee.

Visiting Marion and Hank Orol of Flanders were Marion's parents Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Leghorn of Milwaukee, Wisconsin. While here they all dined out at Compton Village.

Bob Melton of Birchwood really got away from it all for a wonderful few days in sunny Puerto Rico.

Starting the holiday season were several of the bridge clubs in full force. Meeting at Vic and Judy Wilkinson's on Laurelwood for bridge were Stephanie and John Burns, Charles and Mary Wischmeyer, Garry and Nancy Noble. Prize winners were Vic, Chuck and John.

For their Christmas Party Pinehole Club 1 met at the home of Lee Majestic on Larkspur for a gift exchange. Enjoying the gifts and the cards were Barb Dozer, La Donna Black, Pat Gibb, Grace Carlin, Elaine Flynn, Kay Thomas and Polly Lawshe. Prize winners were Polly, Grace and La Donna.

Bridge Club 3 met at the Burton Hollow home of Betty Bottle this month. Regulars present were Lou Grenier, Lee Justice, Emmaline Maritz, Helen Jankowski, Jean Osborne, Delores Springmeier and Mary Wischmeyer. Taking home the prizes were Emmaline, Delores and Helen.

THE BRIDGETTES met at the home of Nancy Noble of Laurelwood. Included were Norma Melton, Dorthy Jeffers, Martin Orol, Julie Lafr, Jerrie Kenan, Judy Wilkinson, Stephanie Burns. Taking home the prizes were Judy, Julie, and Dorothy.

Guild 7 of St. Gerald's Women's Council met at the Wischmeyer home on Meadowlark and after a short business meeting spent the remainder of the evening making favors for the Christmas trays of patients at Mary-Crest.

Also in the Christmas spirit, the Women's Civic Club of Farmington held an afternoon workshop at the home of Nancy Noble on Laurelwood to make Christmas decorations for the tree they are donating to the children's pediatric department of Botsford Hospital.

Vic and Judy Wilkinson of Laurelwood attended a formal dinner with old friends at the Holiday Inn in Pontiac, while the Clint Justices, Norbert Jankowski's, the Robert Grenier's and the Chuck Wischmeyer's started their Christmas, celebrating with an outing to Huck's Bavarian Village.

The Women's Civic Club of Farmington held their potluck Christmas Dinner at the home of Ron and Pat Wellbaum of Robinwood.

A COMMITTEE meeting of the Homeowners' Association was held at the Laurelwood home of Bob Smith. It was announced that they were successful in contacting Postmaster Henry Trombley and a new postal drop box has been placed on the northwest corner of Birchwood and Flanders for the convenience of Meadowlark. It was also decided that weather permitting the Magic Square will be flooded for ice skating.

The residents are grateful to the Women's Civic Club of Farmington for financing the cost of having the Magic Square banked for skating. Men volunteers are needed for maintenance purposes of the rink.

This would be during the evening hours weather permitting. Any volunteers are asked to contact either Ted Pidgeon or Bob Smith.

We would like to bid farewell to the Longnecker of Kirby and with them good luck in the new home in New Jersey.

Mr. and Mrs. Rondey Linn have just purchased Linn's Party Store at the corner of Farmington Road and Seven Mile.

Recovering from recent hospital stays are Bobby Skaugen, Janet Streng, Glen Stock and Ann Hobbs.

A birthday luncheon for Lou Grenier was held at the Laurelwood home of Lee Justice. Attending were Lou's neighbors who enjoyed bridge.

Other birthday celebrants this month are Steven Sery, Hedi Hans, Roy Smith, Bill Paige, Douglas Brown, Tom Zach, Pamela Weaver, Rick Ronsick and Erick Steele.

Happy wedding anniversaries to Pat and Frank Zarzycki and Dandy and Glenn Yeagley.
