Briar Hill News

FRANCES MANN 826-5446

A Very Happy January Birthday to the following: Jim Robb, Vicki Miller, Sarah Wyman, Clover Emmett, Sandy McCormick, Lois Schenkel, Patty Elting. And belated Anniversary congratulations to Lois and Roy Schenkel and Marge and Harvey Elting.

A new Briar Hill Telephone Directory will soon be sent to all residents. If there are any corrections or additions, please call me in the evening personally. Also, any youngsters wanting their name added to the babylisting list, please call by January 31.

Another of our "older" resident families will soon be moving. Hattie and Jack Lewis and their daughter and son are leaving the end of this month. They have purchased a home in Bloomfield Hills with lots of elbow room - five acres of it.

ROBIN ROE, Laurel Daggett and Sue Moreson auditioned and were accepted by the Livonia Youth Symphony. They are all students of the violin.

Marge Brewer recently had an evening of bridge at her home. Two tables were occupied by Sue Hage, Amy Robb, Sharon O'Neill, Rae Waggoner, Mary Fabry and Mary Ann McAlarney, and I was lucky enough to go home with first prize.

Very new to Briar Hill are Norma and Frank Cramer, living on Briarton in the former Holcomb home. They have a 10 year old son, a 10 year old daughter, Carrie, eighteen months old. Frank is associated with Borden's Creamery and both he and Norma are very sports-minded - liking bowling, hunting, swimming and the like. The Cramers moved from Royal Oak and we welcome them to Farmington.

Wood Creek Farms

ANNE M. PHILLIPS

The incorporation meeting held last week Monday night at the East Farmington High School has had much written about it. Several from Wood Creek attended and those of us who did hope many more will attend the next meeting. This is the extreme importance to everyone in this village.

Janet Lam came home for the between semester break at DePaul U. and brought two friends: with her, Nicki Lee from Terra Haute, Ind., and Sally Kattierhenry whose home is in Phoenix, Arizona. They went up to Crystal Mt. near Frankfurt, for three days of skating, and it was much fun to watch Sally's excitement - she had never seen snow before.

They returned to their college in Green Castle, Ind. Sunday. That afternoon Conrad left for Denver, Colorado, to attend a meeting of thoracic surgeons where he will discuss a paper. He is due back this Thursday to be home for the Men's Association annual dinner meeting in Phoenix, Arizona.

which, as president of the Association, he is scheduled to conduct.

MARIAN'S MOTHER, Mrs. Paul Smith, came from Manhattan, Kansas, for the holidays and stayed for a fine week which continued to the middle of this month.

When I phoned Gladys Wogan for news Monday morning I found she, too, was busy working on a new column. Gladys writes the monthly newsletter.

for the Birmingham Chapter No. 220 of OES. Gladys keeps very busy in work with the Eastern Stars. Her chapter took the 5th of the tea which followed the recent dedication service for the fine organ installed in the Birmingham Masonic Temple by Mrs. Made Dearborn and a son. The Scottish Rite Choir sang and an organist played the new instrument.

BUE SUETTERLIN's father is in St. Carmel Hospital following a heart attack. Three weeks ago this weekend he was at their summer cottage in Brighton closing it up for the winter when he had the seizure. He drove himself home alone but was immediately hospitalized and put into an oxygen tent. He is out of the tent and all hope, on his way to complete recovery.

The Junior Wood Creekers are to have a skating party Saturday, February 5 from 1-3 p.m. Both the pond at the Perry, Eastbrook corner of Wellington, and at the Bys, Millbrook corner of Middlebelt, will be open for this event. There will be bonfires at both places. Hot chocolate will be served. It is hoped that cookies will be made by many of our good residents are invited to attend. If not already registered as Junior Wood Creekers please contact Alice, Toth, 626-3838, and become registered members. If the weather is not suitable for skating on the 5th the alternate date is the following Saturday, the 12th.

K'wood Women Hear About Training Home

Women of Kendallwood Farms heard first hand last week of the wonderful work being done at the Plymouth State Home and Training School.

William Boyd, Director of Community Relations at the home, spoke to the group at a meeting in St. Fabian's Social Hall. Mr. Boyd, who majored in philosophy and public speaking in college, holds a Master of Psychology Degree, and is a very dedicated man in his work with the physically handicapped children.

Mr. Boyd's informal talk entitled "Value of Concern," was illustrated with slides showing provisions that have been made by the community.

The Kendallwood women wish to thank all who so generously found time during the busy holiday rush to make the trip out to the home to help with the unwrapping and sorting of Christmas gifts for the patients.

Assistance to the Plymouth State Home and Training School has been the club's main project for the past five years.
