SECTION B

Hill and Dale Help Children In 3 Schools

Variety was the order of the day, February 16, when the Hill and Dale Garden Therapy Group had their O.P.D. Day (Open Planning Day).

Some of the classes in Gill School made tissue paper collages in the form of a vase of flowers. The results were very colorful and realistic looking. Another class made lifelike birds sitting in a nest. The birds were constructed of milkweed pods, a few feathers, pieces of candy and cloves for the eyes.

Over at Duncel School one class made floral paperweights out of pretty jars, artificial flowers, water, mothballs and felt material for bases, while another class made hanging pot holders out of paper plates, red yarn and colorful pictures of flowers cut out of seed catalogs. This class was held in Engle School.

THE HANDICAPPED tots in Larkshire School started sweet potatoes growing in ceramic bases which were in the form of different animals. Each child's name was punched out of a letter gun and glued to a piece of the child's hearing equipment and, of course, there was a sweet treat for one and all. One other class shared a sweet treat after they created a gum drop tree out of a branch held in place with plaster of paris.

MRS. MORTON CHARLES TAYLOR

Sharee Harvith Weds Morton Charles Taylor In Southfield

Sharee Elita Harvith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Harvith of Westmont Ct. became the bride of Morton Charles Taylor in a recent ceremony at Sharee Zedek Temple in Southfield. Mr. Taylor's parents are the David Taylors of Hamilton, Ontario.

The bride wore a sheath gown of applied lace on silk peau de soie; her bouquet was a crescent of cymbidium orchids and stephanotis. The color scheme was carried out in white with garnet accents.

THE UNUSUAL bridal procession consisted of all child attendants with the exception of the maid of honor. Ranging in age from three to ten years, the children are all cousins of the bride. They were: Marsha, Dawn, Vicki, Leslie, and Lisa Nussbaum, and flower girl, Lisa Gottlieb. Susanna Hassal was the maid of honor.

John Hervith, brother of the bride, acted as best man. Ushers were: Steven, John, and David Lebow, Louis Silverstein, Marvin Binger, Alfred Nathan, Dr. Max Nathan, Harry Silverstein, and Donald Moscoe. Miss Harvith attended Ferris College, and her bridegroom is a graduate of a Canadian college. They expect to make their home in Toronto, Ontario.

Spring Wedding Being Planned

Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Anderson of 22750 Maple Street announce the engagement of their daughter, Linda Joyce, to James Mizer III, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Reed of Sturgis, Michigan. Miss Anderson is a 1962 graduate of Farmington High School and attended Bronson Methodist Nursing School. An early spring wedding is planned.
