It was rather reassuring to see a little snow last Sunday

Friday it was so nice that a lot of us ventured out of our cages to fill up and down and assure ourselves that the neighbors hadn't moved out en masse during the past two months.

A shower, having nothing to do with the weather, but with the stork, was given last Monday, February 28, in Lucille Kovack's honor. Friends and neighbors after two or three unsuccessful attempts to catch Lucille off guard finally succeeded. They resorted to the use of a card party at her door. Naturally when the girls trooped in with booty for baby and all the food for the festivities, the mama-to-be was pretty lively. A NEW BABY doubtless already enjoying his new duds, is Thomas Richard Naughton of Tuck Rd. Little Tom (after Daddy) weighed in at a sturdy 8 lbs. 14 ozs., the Saturday before last, February 28. Thomas got acquainted with Mommy at Beaumont, and then came home to meet his big sister, Marie, who is three and a half, and of course his proud dad.

One of our little misses, Kathy Sanford, has recently returned home from Martin Place Hospital after having her tonsils and adenoids removed. Kathy came back to Tuck Rd.

and parents Loren and Bernice Sanford about a week ago. Feeling fine now, she has rejoined her friends in Kindergarten.

Joseph and Pauline Chiasson also of Tuck Rd., are hosting visitors from Rimouski, Quebec for a few weeks. Pauline's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Lavoie, are down for a nice holiday with their daughter and family.

Just returned from a warm-er climate, California more specifically, is Florence Watson.

Florence spent a week enjoying the company of her brother Bernard and his family at Clermont. Then she spent another week in Los Angeles with a friend, Mary Hunt; then another in Hollywood. There she stayed with long time friend, Nellie McKinley, and toured the places we've all heard about, including the movie sets and Universal City. But all holidays must come to an end.

Now Florence is back at the old routine with the rest of us.

This has been a very interesting month for me. I have enjoyed watching the big kids—Milt George, Bob Eisenmann and Gene Lillie trying their damndest to keep their kids kites up in outer space, but to no avail. Amid screams of delight the frail paper and wood sails soared up, up and away and then tumbled as ships upon a stormy sea. After a brief tussle with the wind and a valiant effort to keep these ships in the air, down they came crashing to earth but ready and rarin' for a return flight.

While the boys were having fun outside, all the little girls congregated at the George home on Barfield to herald Donna's sixth birthday. Headlining the party and star of the show was her seven-month-old cousin who took the attention without so much as a boo. She certainly gave them all a splendid chance at playing chummy. Among several school chums were mixed gals from the neighborhood. Seen enjoying cake and ice cream were

Michelle Bourassa, Vicki Sechrist and Debbie and Karen Szymanski.

LITTLE GIRLS love parties and the big girls do, too. So every second Tuesday the "Group" of twelve girls meets to play pinochle. Last month they swarmed into JoAnn Kinjorak's home on South Duncan. Those enjoying the hot fudge cream puffs were Carol Bourassa, Janet Sist, Jayne Leach, Lillian Jack, Joan Pearce, Gerry Davesort, Janet Elsiele, Pat

Rigg, Connie Copco and Kathleen Rudling. Connie and Kathleen were called on as substitutes and amazed all by walking off with first and second prize. Janet Sist took third prize and Jayne Leach walked off with the booty prize. All in all it made a gay night out with the girls.

If anyone on Barfield hears weird sounds being emitted from the Pinchers household at number 22802 don't fret. It's just Sylvia practicing her karate on husband Dominic and their four boys, Michael, 12; Danny, 9; Carlo, 6; and Johnny,

3. You mean everyone doesn't take up karate? With a household of four boys I'd say it was a necessary defense tactic.

However, it would be quite helpful if you didn't have a saw. One chop with the hand could split a log very nicely.

A very interesting form of exercise and we hope Sylvia keeps on with it. Who knows, maybe

At her recent nineteenth birthday party, Mrs. Jennie Cox Zingelmann of Colgate Avenue was thrilled to see so many of her relatives from far a way places, as well as several school nearby. The party was held at the home of Harold and Karel Kneevs of Chairview Drive; Karel is Mrs. Zingelmann's granddaughter. All four of her grandchildren and twelve great-grandchildren were present. Among them were Mr. and Mrs. Lynn Stone and children of Mayfield in Livonia, Mr. and Mrs. Francis Quigley and family of Negaunee in Redford, Mr. and Mrs. William Zingelmann of Colorado with their children, besides the Kneevs family. Mrs. Beulah Zingelmann, a daughter-in-law with whom the senior Mrs. Zingelmann makes her home, was also on hand. Some who could not be with her were her grandson and his family from Ohio, Mr. and Mrs. Alan Zingelmann and Brian; also another grandson, Norman.

Mrs. Zingelmann is a member of the Eastern Star of Farmington and of the Farmington Historical Society. She has a host of interesting memories of the city as she knew it in her youth.

Just last week the Pinchers had a housewarming hosted by Sylvia's mother Mrs. Coffield and her sister, Mrs. Donna Glembeck. Several friends and relatives enjoyed the homemade spaghetti cooked by Don's mother and southern fried chicken served by Mrs. Coffield. Among the many lovely gifts they received was an Early American bucket planter which finds a beautiful setting in their colonial atmosphere.
