Everything has changed ... but the Source!

This statement probably best describes the happenings in the 50 year story of the Michigan Milk Producers Association.

To the managing staff and all the members of M.M.P.A. we offer congratulations on your 50th anniversary for the efficient and excellent manner in which you have met each challenging change.

Kendallarks Hootin' Annies To Perform for Patients

The Hootin' Annies will be featured when the Kendallarks present their next program for the Northville State Hospital on Thursday, March 24. The Kendallarks are rehearsing an hour-long show of chorus numbers and variety acts which will be presented on March 24 at the Northville Hospital Auditorium for an audience of 250 to 300 patients.

The Kendallarks, under the direction of George Assemann, have been working on new material to add to their repertoire of chorus numbers which will be presented at this time. Two of these are "Chim Chim Cheree" from Mary Poppins and the spirited "Pass Me By" from the film, Father Goose.

Several new small acts will be ready for this performance including a quartet which will sing an original arrangement of "Our Kind of Town is Farmington." The sextette includes Joyce Gregory, Betty Gignac, Mary Sheward, Mary Kritzman, Eleanor Catherman and Oiga Miller. The Kendallarks, Marlowe Belanger, Sue McCallum, and Marian Spencer will sing "Blue Room." Soloists for the evening will be Grace Coffman, Marlowe Belanger, Betty O'Connor and Eleanor Catherman. A specialty number will be sung by Joyce Gregory, and Mary Sheward. Betty O'Connor, and Marian Spencer will sing a medley of moon songs. The popular Roaring Twenties Dancers will do the Charleston.

The Kendallarks will again be the head of the Kendallwood Marquis second annual Festival of Music which will be presented on March 24.

Library Friends Plan Several Special Programs

The Farmington Friends of the Library are planning a series of cultural programs to be held at the Library. These will be in addition to the annual Clinton-Wilbur Lecture which is also sponsored by the Friends of the Library. A wide variety of subjects will be discussed, and a special display of books relating to each topic will be arranged by librarian Mildred Droege.

The first program, to be held March 26, will feature local potter, John Gilek. On May 22, two local bibliophiles, Clifford Meredith and Earl DeLaVerne, will discuss old and rare books.

Mark Benner, president, extended a cordial invitation to all residents of the community as well as to members of the Friends of the Library to attend these programs.

FAMILIES EXPECT THE BEST FROM US

Families in need—think first of McCabe Service. It is the motto. Our every effort is directed toward rendering thoughtful, personal service. Service is what families have come to expect of us. It is the most important single thing we have to offer. We know that. We want you to know it too.
