

Mission Church Pioneering Symbol

By Jerry Wendi

"All I needed was a sign on the top of the car saying 'Traveling Evangelist,'" laughed the Rev. Carl A. Gundersen as he described his first Sunday at which he conducted the mission church. Along with the other duties, the minister of the mission church must transplant all the impediments for the church service both to and from the place of worship.

That first Sunday, Rev. Gundersen found himself with his family and all the equipment in the station wagon, resembling the traveling evangelist of old, who used to save souls in a scattered populace.

Rev. Gundersen is representative of the ministers who are beginning mission churches here. As families come to the suburbs, they find the distance back to the former abodes too great and they want their own churches to minister to their needs.

Rev. Gundersen was called by the Presbytery of the Midwest to organize a new church and began work in Livonia in November of 1963.

He has been very successful in his mission, and in interviewing him, it is easy to see why. Rev. Gundersen has a quality of humor in some of the clergy. He cheerfully recounts his early struggles in establishing a mission church, and recounts some of the errors in judgment he made.

He estimates he must have run 3,000 doorbells in three months. Although all the people he met were pleasant, there were surprises in store for him. He fell into the habit of labeling his prospects, and found that some of those he thought would be leaders were apathetic in actual contact and some of those who seemed to be the most dynamic workers.

The Observer asked Rev. Gundersen what he thought was the reason for the success of the mission churches in the here to minister to their needs. "Suburbanites are, in a sense," he said thoughtfully, "a mission church has no old ties, no outmoded standards. They do not have to conform to the wishes and thoughts of a group of people who have priority rights in the church. They can explore new avenues of thought, take new directions."

"However," he admonished, "his weakness is also its strength. Sometimes the discussions are rather spirited, with everyone becoming a rather strong-minded about their opinions. Then the minister must become rather an arbitrator."

Discussions led to the naming of the church which will be St. Timothy.

It is impossible to talk to Rev. Gundersen without becoming enthused about the new church. His hard work and prayers have borne fruit, and after two years of meeting in other members homes, schools, etc., a new church will be built this year on Newburgh Rd. between Five and Six Mile Rds. in Livonia.

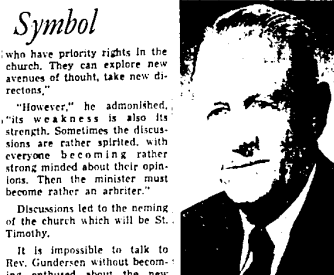

Rev. Gundersen will miss the meetings in the members' homes. "It gave us a feeling of closeness and unity and I hope we will be able to keep," he said.

In addition to founding the mission church, he is president of the Ministerial Association in Livonia and vice-president of the Human Relations Group. Prior to his arrival in Livonia, he served as Pastor of the Second Presbyterian Church of Providence, R.I., for six years.

He was moderator, during that period for the Presbytery of Providence and vice-president of the Rhode Island State Council of Churches in addition to many other responsibilities and committee chairmanships in the Presbytery, Synod and community at large. Rev. Gundersen has degrees from Wheaton College (A.B.), the University of Illinois (M.A.) and from Princeton Theological Seminary (B.D.).

Texas Christian Scientist Comes To Plymouth

"Who Shall Separate Us?" is the title of a Christian Science public lecture coming to Plymouth on Sunday, Jan. 30.

Albert R. Slaughter, C.S., will be the speaker, under sponsorship of First Church of Christ, Scientist. His lecture is described as an exploration of the spiritual forces which unify men's lives, with each other and with God.

The event begins at 4 p.m. in the church edifice, 1100 W. Ann Arbor Trail.

Slaughter is from Dallas, Texas, and attended Southern Methodist University. Once a lumberman and vice president of a savings and loan association, he resigned from business in 1945 to devote full time to the Christian Science healing practice. He is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lectureship of The First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston.

Negro Life Is Topic

Arthur Reese, a representative of the Association for the Study of Negro Life and History, will speak at the 20th meeting of the Farmington Human Relations Council. The session will begin at 8:30 p.m. at the Trinity Episcopal Church.

Retreat Begins Jan. 21

United Church Women of Livonia will hold a Spiritual Retreat at Rosedale Garden Church on Jan. 21. Watch your next Life for hours and plan on coming for a time of dedication and spiritual uplift.

THE ST. JOHN BOSCO Altar Society has launched 1966 with Mrs. Frank Schank as new president. Mrs. Schank has asked the people of St. John Bosco to clean out their attics, garages and basements so that they might donate any broken toys, furniture or anything that can be repaired. The items are separated into groups then given to the Teen-agers, Senior Citizens, and Ladies Circle or just plain volunteers to put in working order and then they are taken to needy children's homes, institutions and mental homes. Seated (left to right): Mrs. David Markosky, Mrs. Daniel Cavuto and Mrs. William LaFerie. These ladies are members of Mary Queen of Peace Circle and have volunteered to help with this project.

Nature of God Subject In Christian Science Churches

The nature of God as "Truth" will be the subject of the service in all Christian Science churches this week. Scriptural readings will include the Psalmist's prayer: "Withhold not thou thy tender mercies from me, O Lord; let thy loving kindness and thy truth continually preserve me."

Paralleling the Bible passages will be references from the denomination's textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy, including: "Let there be Light," is the perpetual demand of Truth and Love, changing chaos into order and discord into the music of the spheres."
