Hopkins-Ferry Speak Vows in Detroit

Barbara Lee Hopkins became the bride of Marjorie Ann Carl Ferry in a ceremony at Our Lady Gate of Heaven, in Detroit. Rev. Frank Bertram bestowed nuptial blessings at the nuptial mass. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael E. Hopkins, Cranston Ave. in Livonia. The bride was wed in a sheath empire gown with cowl collar. A floor length train in white velvet extended from beneath the collar. Her bouquet was composed of phalaenopsis orchids, holly leaves, and stephanotis.

Mary Lynne Hopkins (the bride's sister) wore a dark green gown similar in style to the bride's but without the train. She carried a white pillbox muff with a spray of holly.

Mrs. Peter Tyrann III (sister of the bride), Sally Plamondon, Sharon Mierkiewicz, Maureen Hopkins, (sister of the bride) all wore similar gowns of deep red velvet with matching accessories.

Alison and Hilary Mayes, flower girls, were attired in dresses of long red velvet.

David Ferry (brother of the groom) was best man. Michael Hopkins, U.S.M.C., Peter Tyrann, III, John Francis, U.S.A.F.

Camp Fire Girls On The Go

Mrs. America of 1964, Livonia's Mrs. J. Dunne, Esq., joined the ranks of Camp Fire leaders this fall. Her Blue Bird group was organized in October and started off with a Hallowe'en Dinner and Daughter tea. In November they visited the turkey farm and later made turkey centerpieces for Thanksgiving with feathers collected there. They made a Christmas visit to the Livonia Nursing Center on Plymouth Road, where they sang songs and presented the patients with polenta plant favors they had made. They have also attended the Ice Follies, made a trip to Greenfield Village where they saw Miss Flora, of the TV program "Romper Room" and had a Christmas party and made Blue Bird purses. They are looking forward to a skits party in the near future and a Valentine party next month. Meanwhile, they will be busy with the annual Camp Fire candy sale, which begins this week.
