

May 9 Is Likely For Vote

May 9 will be the earliest date Livonia and north Nankin voters face as a possibility for another vote on more taxes to operate the Livonia School District. School Board members have discarded the possibility of combining another millage vote with the April 4 General Election in Livonia.

Superintendent Benton Yates told the board recently that he had conferred with city officials who did not feel it was an appropriate time to combine a school-millage vote and the city park millage election.

Because the need for haste has abated, the board has held off on setting a date until it holds more meetings on the subject.

The Board-planned to hear reports from the School Board Advisory Committee, League of Women Voters, a city industrial committee and various Parent-Teacher Associations.

The board is still trying to determine when to ask school district voters for more money and how much. Trustees hope to be able to gather the loose strands at the study session and tie them up into one ball of wax.

Improved communication with the advisory committee has been called for, too, following the meeting.

Barbara Watkins, Mrs. Phyllis Peterson, Charles Browning and Jim Callow.

Others are David Linderman, Marguerite Kirby, John Matlega, George Kindred, Al Meredith, Keitha Carter, Jackie Deffenbacher and Carol Isaacs.

Also serving are Irene Schoch, Mr. and Mrs. V. C. Reddy, Mary Jane Woodworth, Mrs. Del Lamb, Bill Schneider, Bruce Cunningham, and David Merriam.

Appoint Hazel Leland

Hazel Leland has been re-appointed to represent the City of Farmington on the Beautification Council of Southeastern Michigan. A member of the City's Beautification Committee, Mrs. Leland will serve as a liaison between the local and regional organizations.

As an alternate delegate the Council named Beautification Committee Chairman George Strzelczak.

Vagnozzi Promoted

Aldo Vagnozzi, chairman of the Farmington Democratic Club, who spends his "working hours" at the Michigan AFL-CIO headquarters, was named editor of that organization's organ, the Michigan AFL-CIO News, last week. Prior to that Vagnozzi was managing editor of the publication.
