10 Win Awards In Art Exhibit

By MARGARET RUDLAFF
Ten Plymouth High School students have been honored by having their work accepted by the Scholastic Magazine annual art competition held at Crowley's in Detroit from February 23 through the week of March 5.

Elizabeth Maer received a Gold Key award for her entry in a pencil drawing, Nancy Kincaid, Margaret Rudloff, Katie Wall, Don Cowan, Sue Holland, and Don Robertson received Certificates of Merit. Their work will also be displayed at Crowley's.

The Art Department entered 54 art projects in the contest. Classifications for the exhibit include drawings and paintings done in oils, chalk, ink, pencil, and water colors; graphics and designs, including printmaking, illustrations, commercial, fashions and general and applied textile designs.

Also, applications for the 1966 Fall term are still being accepted at General Motors Inc. Sponsors are available in production management.

Pupils Win Key Awards

By DEBBIE LUSKY
Several North Farmington students won recognition in the Scholastic Art awards regional exhibition. The entries were divided into 18 categories and were judged by a panel consisting of three art educators. The winners were awarded certificates recognizing their talent.

In the national show, sponsored by Scholastic Magazine, several scholarships to various art schools across the nation are awarded to seniors who submit a portfolio containing eight to 12 of their best drawings. Among the 25 from Michigan selected to compete are Barb Allen, Mark Campbell, and Elaine Leigh. The national contest will be held in New York City in May.

Several students have also received notification that their entries have won recognition in the Scholastic Writing Competition. A list of the winners will be announced as soon as possible.

Basketball districts continue this week, as do the state wrestling finals. A home basketball game with Allen Park is scheduled for 1:30 this Saturday.

Last Wednesday the first of many meetings for students interested in competing in forensics this spring was held. Miss June Sulewski will be the sponsor.

Members of the Latin Club have planned a theatre party.

Franklin Facts
Hold Final Pep Assembly
By ANN OPLAND
"Franklin Facts" is back: Tuesday, Franklin students attended the last Pep Assembly of the school year.

The music of the pep band helped make the assembly a spirited one.

Introduced for the last time were seniors Bill Bauer, Al Hollick, Al Jones, Paul Kalash, Dale Lee, and Cal Lutten, winding up their careers as high school basketball players.

"Cheaper by the Dozen" is the title of this year's Junior Class Play. The play is under the direction of Harold Waller, English teacher.

Chosen for the lead roles are Tom Nedean as Father, Cathy Wright as Mother, Georgia Battifield as Erastone, Diane Towler as Anne, and Lee Burgess as Frank.

The week will be climaxed on March 23 by the annual Sponge Week. The girls ask the boys, provide transportation and a corsage at this event.

North West Suburban League Dance will be held April 22 in Thurston's gymnasium. One hundred tickets will be given to each of the six schools. Tickets will be sold on a first come, first served basis.

Thurston's senior play "Cheaper By The Dozen," which was presented Feb. 24, 25, and 26, was a tremendous success with the audience. The mother and father were played by Vivian Follick and Mark Bristol. The children were played by Linda Shah, Bob Palmer, Lewis, Pam Lennon, Lola LeBlanc, Carol Ingersoll, Harry Fredrick, and Barb Delmore.

Berza Untana portrayed the role of the cook, Dr. Burton was played by Richard Kopec. Joe Scieszka was played by David Cortese, Miss Brill was played by Cheryl Gray, and Tom Adamson portrayed the role of Larry.

BULLETINS FROM BENTLEY

Kazoo Students Visit School

By SUE DOWELL
Everyone looks forward to having company. Wednesday many honored guests visited Bentley High School in Kalamazoo. The Student Council at University High is interested in Bentley and its functions.

Since Bentley too, was eager to see how University High is run, Bentley arranged an exchange day with the high school. On Jan. 5, Bentley visited University High. Around 30 students from University School visited Bentley.

After being welcomed by principal Jack Comstock, and many of Bentley's advisors the students were given a tour of the school. During this time they visited the concert choir, and the band. After lunch they took part in one of Bentley's Student Council meetings. Later Bentley and U-High students discussed problems and interesting ideas that both schools shared.

Even though the snow is melting in Livonia, it isn't so bad at Mount Holly. At least it wasn't last week. Members of the ski club spent last Wednesday doing it. It won't be too long before the Bentley ski emblems will be in. Then they can be purchased during respective lunch hours.

Surprise!! The Silver Swans will put on another fantastic water show this year. The group has just selected 15 new members who were recently initiated into the club. The girls are already starting to practice for the swim show. Not only will there be girls performing but also, many coed numbers will be performed.

The Drum and Sandal dance club has also been preparing for their big show of the year. This year there are many new members who will be performing in the numbers, not to mention the longtime members like Linda Duncan, Barb Morrison, Pam Loyd, Linda Korver, Mary Dickie, Cheryl Cohen, Linda Shire, and Bev Bellas.

Wayne State University's single-season foot shooting percentage record is the .828 figure turned in by Fred Wolcott in 1964.
