Chaplin Returns To Screen Sun.

A collection of four Charlie Chaplin comedies, made early in his film career, will be presented in the Famous Early Movies Series in the Museum theater at Greenfield Village on March 20. Two performances are scheduled for the Sunday only showing at 2 and 4 p.m.

"The Tramp," Chaplin's most famous two-reeler, will kickoff the showing of these four 1915 films. It was for this movie that the great silent screen actor developed his famous tramp costume.

"A Woman" is the comic film in which Charlie Chaplin shaved off his mustache to play the part of a lady, Edna Purviance, his favorite leading lady, co-starred in this production. "The Bank" is an imaginative story of how Chaplin foils a robbery. "Police" is the fourth picture in the group and also offers a large portion of high jinks and fun for early movie goers.

Art Exhibit Slated

A free art exhibit will be conducted in the Fellowship Hall at Redford Presbyterian Church March 24 and 25 from 11 to 9 p.m. and March 26 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. The Church is located at 17228 Redford Ave. near Grand River and Lahser. The public is invited to attend.

'Rumpelstiltskin' Comes To Franklin Saturday

The parting of the curtain for the opening scene is an exciting moment at any play.

The booming voice of the first speaker suddenly breaks the silence and everyone settles back for a more enjoyable time.

This scene will take place three times this Saturday, March 19 at the Franklin High School auditorium when the Plymouth AAUW Players present their adaptation of the children's tale "Rumpelstiltskin."

Through the cooperation of the AAUW and the Livonia Association for Retarded Children, children, young and old, will once again have an opportunity to thrill to the antics of that "spinner of gold" and the riddle of his name.

All proceeds from the days entertainment will be donated to the Community Opportunity Center and LARC's Nursery School Program.

The efforts of approximately 60 volunteers, aside from the cast and crew of 20 AAUW Players, were required to make this staging possible.

There are 600 seats available for each of the three performances, scheduled to take place at 11 a.m., 1 p.m. and 2:30 p.m., and ticket sales are moving along at a very rapid pace.

Tickets for the few remaining seats can be obtained by contacting Shelly Katteln, GR 6-1756; Mary Geuder, 474-4097; Wyn Cloze, 421-8225 or Ellen Midjan 422-2780.
