MRS. JOHN DAVID KOBASA

Roughley-Kobasa Vows Spoken

Carol Elizabeth Roughley became the bride of David Kobasa, at an afternoon wedding upon their return, they will make their future home in Middle Church of the Immaculate Conception recently.

The bride is the daughter of the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Centralia, Redford Township. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. William Trevarrow (grandparents of the bride) 12960 Charest, Hamtramck.

The bride wore a gown of tulle with a bodice embroidered with seed pearls. Her veil was carried a bouquet of white roses centered with an orchid corsage. Janet E. Spicer, sister of the bride, was matron of honor.

Let's Hook A Rug

A course of instruction in rug hooking will be given at Greenfield Village beginning March 23, under the auspices of the crafts department. The class will be held each Wednesday morning from 9:30 until 11:30 for eight weeks.

The Cotton Gin Mill at Greenfield Village will be used for the class under the guidance of Robert Kaiser. He will explain and teach the basic techniques of hooking, the art of shading, choice of materials and colors, as well as many other aspects of the craft.

Persons interested in registering for the class should contact the crafts department office (271-1929, ext. 223). Tuition for the eight week course is $15. The registration fee includes a book, as well as the opportunity to purchase hooking materials at cost. Classes will be limited to 12.
