Candlelight Service on Maundy Thursday

A candlelight Communion Service will be held at Emmanuel Baptist Church, Livonia with Nankin Mills and Alpha Baptist invited to share in the service. This has become an annual service and from the comments received—a meaningful one.

The Lutheran Communion Service was taken to the patients of Northville State Hospital on Tuesday, March 29. Rev. David F. Romberg, Pastor of the Lutheran Church of the Risen Christ, and members of the congregation, including or-

T.L. Eleas To Speak April 9

Thomas L. Eleas, visiting circuit minister of Jehovah's Witnesses, and his wife, Nola, are visiting the local congregation of Jehovah's Witnesses this week.

They will be house guests of G. Harold Conner of Plymouth. Eleas, area supervisor of 16 congregations, informed Carson

Episcopalians and Presbyterians Unite For Maundy Thursday Ceremonies

The observance of Maundy Thursday will take on special significance for Episcopalians and Presbyterians in Farmington this year as they unite for an Ecumenical Commemoration of the Institution of the Lord's Supper. Trinity Episcopal Church and the First Presbyterian Church will sponsor this observance on Maundy Thursday evening, April 7 at 8 p.m. in the First Presbyterian Church, 26165 Farmington Road.

The service will be a celebration of the Holy Communion according to the Liturgy of the Church of South India. The Church of South India was inaugurated in 1947 as a result of the union of the former South India United Church (Presbyterian-Congregationalist), the Methodist Church of South India and the southern dioceses of the Anglican (Episcopal) Church of India, Pakistan, Burma and Ceylon.

The Choir of Trinity Church will sing the service music under the direction of Mrs. John Dulmage, Choir Director and Mrs. James Ward, Organist.

The Session of the Presbyterian Church and the Presbyterians of Trinity Church, lay governing bodies of the congregations, will walk together in the procession of clergy and choir preceding the service.

Tension of Holy Week

"The Christian Century" recently quoted an address by G. A. Taylor before the Young Republican Club of Asheville, N.C. in which Taylor said that the coexistence of Christianity and communism is impossible without tension. The article went on to point out that the Christian faith cannot exist without tension with any cultural, political or social expansion.

There is, by the very nature of the Faith, a tension to destroy, correct, purify that which exists in our world. Holy Week shows this tension area as the Prophet from Nazareth enters the Holy City amid the cries of welcome from the populace but under the envious, scheming eyes of the religious and political rulers of his day.

The tension that he brought resulted in a crucifixion after a ministry of only three years and only five days after his triumphal entry into Jerusalem. He was the "One Solitary Life" of history that attempted to accept men as they were, without reference to the ethnic, religious, political or economic status. His human relations—i.e. his relationship with human beings—was above all else, the kind of pride-filled egotism that is part and parcel of our day.

The interesting thing is that, whenever people want to justify their own lack of good human relations they never say "Look at Jesus of Nazareth." Many times they quote the book of his Scriptures, the Old Testament, or even the book about him, the New Testament.

But they always quote it out of context, hacking a phrase here, a quote there, to justify their own egotistical, sin-filled actions. They never look at the Word made flesh, Jesus of Nazareth, and say what he would do or say or think. This kind of text out of context has used Christianity to justify war, slavery, capitalism and communism.
