

Kenwood Church of Christ Plans To Show Color Film on Missions
"As I Go" a new color movie stressing the impact of Christian missions, will be premiered at the Kenwood Church of Christ on Sunday evening, April 10, at 8:30 p.m. Morning services for the day will include a sunrise service at 6:20, with Daryl Howell and Tom Branson speaking on "What The Resurrection of Christ Means to Me"; Bible school at 9:45 with classes for all ages; and morning worship at 11:00, when Lee Baltzer will preach on the theme, "Now Is The Son of Man Glorified". The church is located on Middlebelt at St. Martin's in Livonia, next to Livonia Mall. The movie, subtitled "From Moscow To Mashoko," is an exciting first-hand report of a tour by Bob J. Vernon, showing the contrast between the life, revolutionary spirit of Communism as viewed in Moscow, and the compassionate missionary heart of Christianity as evidenced at Mashoko Christian Mission in Rhodesia. This movie holds special interest for the Kenwood congregation—because they help to support a missionary family at Mashoko, Rhodesia—the mission station pictured in "As I Go," and because Bob Vernon will conduct a revival meeting at the Kenwood Church of Christ this fall, October 28.

Rabbi Ernest Conrad To Speak April 12
The Adult Education Committee of Temple Beth Am will present Rabbi Ernest J. Conrad of Temple Beth Jacob, on Tuesday, April 12. He will discuss the new translation of the Bible made by the Jewish Publication Society, the first one that has been made since 1917. There is considerable interest in this translation, especially among reform Jews, since a more complete and meaningful understanding of the original biblical material may result. Rabbi Conrad is a recognized scholar in this field, and recently taught a course on the Bible at Oakland University. The talk will begin at 9 p.m. at the John Building, West Seven Mile Road and Oshtemo, and it is hoped that all members and interested friends will attend.
