MRS. WILLIAM THOMAS REED

Stephens-Reed Are Wed in Double Ring Ceremony

Sally A. Stephens became the bride of William Reed, April 2 in an afternoon ceremony at the First Methodist Church in West Branch.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Stephens of West Branch. The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Reed, 15419 Oak Dr., Livonia.

The bride's gown was of satin encrusted with lace appliques. A chapel train was held in place on her shoulders with a bow. Pearl edged petals held her triple illusion veil in place. She carried a cascade of yellow roses and white mums.

Her attendants were Mrs. Duane Weldon (matron of honor), Karen Larsen and Diane Reed were bridesmaids. They were all gown alike in sheaths of embossed organza on matching tulle. They carried cascades of yellow mums with white carnation center.

Richard Reed, of Garden City was best man and Robert Lowry of Plymouth, Duane Weiden of Wheeler, and Donald Stephens of West Branch acted as the guests.

A reception was held following the wedding at West Branch Town Hall. The future home of the bride and groom will be East Lansing.

The bride graduated from Alma College.

The groom attended Michigan State University.

'Book Circus' To Be Held April 19

A "Book Circus" will come to town for a day Tuesday, April 19, when Women Journalists stage their ninth annual book sale from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. at the Detroit Press Club.

Members of the Detroit Chapter of Theta Sigma Phi, national professional fraternity for women in journalism, will welcome the public to the sale of the club. The club at First and Howard is normally open only to members and guests.

Tables on the second floor will be laden with second-hand book bargains starting at 15 cents. WWJ-TV's weather clown, Sonny Elliot, will visit the literary circus at noon, and Jerry Booth of CKLW-TV's "Fun House" will be on hand at 6 p.m.

The sale benefits the Lucy Corbett Scholarship Fund established in memory of a beloved Detroit woman journalist. The fund helps deserving women students of journalism complete their education.

Well-known Detroit authors will be on hand to autograph copies of their books, which will be sold at the Book Circus. Among them are photojournalist Joe Clark, and Lillian Jackson Braun, author of "The Cat Who Could Read Backwards."

Co-Chairman of the Book Circus is Mae Denzler. Assisting are Janet (Mrs. Carmi) Odell, Barbara Marx, Patricia Kroger, Betty (Mrs. Frank) Angelo, Barbara (Mrs. Julian J.) Komar, Dorothy (Mrs. Royce) Howes, Fran Maier, Laurena Pringle, Vera (Mrs. Frank) Nolan and Margaret (Mrs. James B.) Hendrix and Sibyl (Mrs. Frank) Gill.

How to Keep Up

I've never known it to fail that when I'm trying to take pictures of children, things happen so fast I just can't keep up with the action. I can't, that is, unless I'm using the kind of camera that lets me keep a jump ahead.

One camera that lets you shoot the action as fast as it happens is the KODAK INSTAMATIC 404 using a flashcube. Whether you're shooting pictures outside or with flash indoors, you're always ready for the next picture to happen.

A spring motor automatically advances the film after each exposure. All you need do is aim the camera and watch for the right split second to snap your picture. One winding of the spring motor is good for the 12 shots on a KODAPAK cartridge.

For flash, there's flashcube. This is a brand new convenience for people who want flash pictures. It lets you take four pictures without changing bulbs. With the INSTAMATIC 404 Camera, after each shot, film and flashcube advance automatically. The next flash bulb is ready as soon as the film is ready... and that's instantly.

You can buy the KODAK INSTAMATIC Camera in a complete outfit that includes film, flashcube and batteries. There's even an instruction book that not only tells you all about the camera but provides tips on how to take better pictures with it. Come in and let me demonstrate this camera and the new flashcube.
