

YOU CAN PROFIT BY HIS MISTAKE . . .

HE TRIED TO SELL HIS HOUSE HIMSELF WITHOUT THE HELP OF A REALTOR!

You face several dangers when you try to sell your house yourself. You may: not know the true market value of your home; be harassed by a parade of curiosity seekers at all hours of the day and night; have to cope with bargain hunters; neglect your job to play salesman or even expose your family to perils from strangers. NOW, in our changing market it is more necessary than ever before to seek experienced counsel and advice in solving your real estate problems. We, at Alger F. Quast are in an excellent position to offer you the highest type of counsel and advice on "Everything in Real Estate."
