

Soroptimists Bestow Honors

Plymouth Soroptimist honored young people at Loty's on Wednesday evening. The two girls received $25 Sally McKenzie, Mary Theika, awards and Edward Wendover and Edward Wendover were recipients of U.S. Savings Bonds.

Chairman of community projects, Mrs. Carmel Trower appointed Mrs. Lorraine Jarvis as Mistress of Ceremony for the occasion with City Manager, Richard Blodgett, doing the honors.

Soroptimist is a service organization which engages actively in the betterment of the community and which uses money earned in this manner.

People at the race track may get a lot of bitter experience, but they never learn to cut out the horse-play.

Three Cities Art Club Awards Cash Prizes

The Three Cities Art Club, which has members from six communities in Western Wayne County, awarded cash prizes for three paintings at the show held this week at the Westland Shopping Center.

Despite the official title of the club, members live in Westland, Livonia, Plymouth, Redford Township, Wayne, and Northville, a club spokesman said.

Mundy Beltz, of 362 W. 10th, Northville, won $50 for her painting "Portrait of a Man," also named the best of show.

Isabel Loosemore, of 19301 Burgess, Detroit, won the $25 second place award for her "Bouquet."

The $25 prize for the best sculpture went to Carole Goodale, of Orchard Lake for her "Seated Woman." Miss Hale of 4911 Moore, Wayne, won $25 for her "Daisies in December."
