WESTERN WAYNE UNIT of the Michigan Cancer Foundation held its "Tribute Day for Sewing Groups" on Thursday, June 2 in the auditorium at the Oakwood Hospital. The dressings made by the women of these groups were made for the Redford Township Branch and were used by patients in this area. Mrs. Jack Rashle received a special award for making 15,000 dressings during the past three years. The awards were presented by Mrs. Melvin Temple, Unit Service Chairman for Western Wayne Unit assisted by Mrs. Gerald Reid, General Chairman of the Redford Branch. For information call Mrs. Reid, KR 1-0854. Seated left: Mrs. Temple, Mrs. Rashle, and Mrs. Reid.

Farmington Members to Attend VFW Convention

Mrs. Elmer (Lora) Waters, Seattle, Washington, National Chaplain and Americanism Director of the Ladies Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars, will represent the National organization at the Michigan State Convention, to be held June 23-26, 1966, in Grand Rapids.

Mrs. Matt (Emma) Mombler, Royal Oak, Department President, will preside at the convention sessions.

Department conventions are held in the late spring to elect officers for each state auxiliary unit and to recognize the work of the members on local and state levels. National officers for the 1966-67 year will be elected at the 53rd annual national convention to be held August 19-24 in New York City.

Auxiliary members annually give more than three million dollars and over six million volunteer hours to hospitalize veterans and their families, community service, Americanism programs, assistance to youth groups, cancer research, civil defense and legislation bene-

Hulsing-Febrs Take Vows

St. John's Episcopal Church in Plymouth was the scene of the June 11 wedding of Mary Karen Hulsing and Delmer Lee Febrs. Rev. Canon David Davies performed the ceremony and the music was furnished by Henry Purcell.

Kenneth Hulsing gave the bride in marriage. Mary Karen is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Hulsing, Church St., Plymouth and Delmer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Febrs, Grant Pass, Ore.

The bride wore her older sister's (Ann Johnson) wedding gown. It was an empire gown fashioned on princess lines, floor length with a chapel train. There were ivory embroidered ivy leaves on white organza, and ivory satin binding at neck and sleeves. An ivory satin double Dior bow held the shoulder length veil. The bouquet was of white roses and Stephanotis.

Matron of Honor was Ann Hulsing Johnson (sister), Newton Centre, Mass. Susan Hulsing, (sister) from New York, N.Y. was maid of honor. Penelope Kendall, of LaMar, Colorado (college roommate) was bridesmaid.

All the attendants were groomed alike in floor length bright yellow heavy linen, empire line, floor length sheaths. The elbow sleeves and narrow floating back panel were outlined with narrow green velvet ribbon. They wore circles of ivy and white daisies in their hair. They carried cascade bouquets of the same.

Ronald Albert, Rochester, N.Y., was best man. Timothy Johnson, Newton Centre, Mass. and Lewis Whitman, Albany, Ga. were ushers.

The bride's mother wore a two piece lemon yellow street length sheath with matching shoes and turban. A green orchid was pinned to her purse. The groom's mother wore an antique gold two piece dress with a moss green hat and shoes. She wore a green orchid corsage.

Immediately following the ceremony, there was a reception in the Mayflower Meeting House for 200 guests. Guests were from Arlington Heights and Plainfield, Ill.; Stamford, Conn.; Cheyboygan, Kalamazoo, Bloomfield Hills, Birmingham, Farmington, Garden City, Livonia, Grosse Pointe, Ann Arbor, Ypsilanti, and Howell.

The bride was a June graduate of Wellesley College. The groom had B.S. and M.S. from Massachusetts Institute of Technology. The groom is to resume work on a doctoral degree at M.I.T. The bride will continue to study at Boston University in the fall.

The bride's going away outfit was a "hot" pink and orange tweed suit, pink crepe, a large picture hat and black patent leather accessories. Following a honeymoon trip to Boston, the couple will make their future home in Allston, Mass.

"Sacrifice and Service"

A group of Hindu, Muslim, and Christian boys in Jinja, Uganda met several times to consider symbols for their new YMCA club emblem. Each religious group desired to have its religious symbol represented.

Although the Christian boys were a minority, the group finally decided on a cross. One of the Hindu boys explained why. "The cross," he said, "meant sacrifice and service and to me this is what our club represents also."
