

THEME OF THE 1966 Founders Festival was "Farmington Honors Its Own." To carry out the theme the Festival singled out Farmington people who had achieved recognition in their fields and those who had resided in the area for a long time. Here two of the 1966 award winners Stanley Drake and Marta Kristin appear on the dignitaries stand.

Franklin Band Concert Thursday

There'll be plenty of toe-tapping at 7:30 p.m., Thursday, July 25, when the Franklin Village Band tootles out old time favorites in front of the Chrysler Showboat in the Downtown Shopping Center.

Lead by Farmington's Dr. Conrad Lam, a thoracic surgeon, and directed by Bill Elison, the band's members include a commercial art firm president, the president of a catering firm, president of an engineering company, an auto company buyer, a partner in a computer products firm and many other VIPs and weeps.

The band might be called the nation's most elite musical organization because its roster reads like a Who's Who of the Detroit business and professional world. All the men are skilled musicians, however, and can belt out a tune with the best of them.

Candidates Corner Is Saturday Feature

Soap box orators who are candidates for political office—and Farmington has them in droves this year—will be permitted to expound at unlimited lengths at a special forum arranged for Saturday during the Founders Festival.

Following the colorful July 27 parade, a site in front of the Chrysler Showboat in the Downtown Shopping Center will be designated "Candidate's Corner."
