

Sympathetic Plymouthites Aid Refugees from Cuba

After having all but the clothes on their backs seized by Premier Castro's police, a Cuban couple last week reunited with three sons, partially through the efforts of Plymouth people.

The couple, Mr. and Mrs. Francisco Dorado, will make their home here.

Their three sons have been staying at the St. Francis Home for Boys on Fenkel Ave. in Detroit for the past five years. Sometime in 1961, they were sent here by the Dorados when they learned Castro was sending young boys to Russia.

Recently, police came to their valuable home, seized all their valuables, took the key, and kicked them out.

The details of their flight to America are still sketchy because their sons speak only English, having forgotten Spanish, and the parents speak only Spanish.

Helping them settle are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick Kelley of 888 Ross St., and Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Degeard, of Livonia.

The Kelleys hosted Dorado on Francisco, or Frank, on several occasions. Both families are members of the Our Lady of Good Counsel Church.

Among the details available, it was learned that the Dorados made a last Christmas. The Kelleys worked through a U.S. Senator from North Dakota they knew, and were able to get the Dorados to Miami. Apparently, diplomatic relations allow the flights from Cuba to Mexico City.

They arrived here recently, and saw their three sons for the first time in five long years. The sons, Frank, 13, Jesse, 10, (Jenny) and son, 14, (Leonardo), were sponsored by the Catholic Charities. It was through them that the Kelleys met Frank. The Degeards found room for the Dorados last week, when they were able to rent a home in Plymouth.

Dorado was offered a job at Stahl Manufacturing Co. and was to begin Monday. Apparently, he had difficulty working in Cuba because he was not a Communist. His wife is trained as a nurse.

We learned of this when Frank would come out. Mrs. Kelley explained, "Lena, also came on several occasions.

Paula Koepke, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Russ Koepke, has acted as an interpreter part of the time. She is a student at U.M.

However, the language barrier has not been insurmountable. Mrs. Kelley reported that shopping with Mrs. Dorado that only those items that do not show the contents in pictures on the label are hard to find.

They searched a long time for garlic, because Mrs. Dorado was unable to say it in English.

In Cuba, meat was expensive and allowed only twice a month, according to Mrs. Dorado. Milk was hard to come by.

They have found a place to rent, but someone to help the Dorados learn English is still needed, as well as bicycles for the three boys.
