You can carry your extra jackets, blouses and skirts wrinkle-free on an automobile trip by putting them on a shelf that fits on top of suitcases in the trunk.

From your lumber yard get a piece of Masonite 24" x 36" to serve as the "floating shelf. Stack garments neatly and wrap them and board with plastic cloth.

A DREAM OF 11 years realized at long last, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Connell beam at their newly-adopted son, Raymond, in their Westland home.

Neighbors' Cheer Dry Mother's Tears

A person with a walkie-talkie at the entrance to a Westland subdivision near Ann Arbor Trail and Middlebelt... another person with a walkie-talkie communicating several blocks away... a three-piece band standing by... and a crowd of 30 to 40 housewives and children anxiously awaiting a neighborhood event.

The situation reached a climax just before noon Wednesday when Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Connell, of 28106 Mackenzie Street, arrived home with a baby boy.

But it wasn't the usual welcoming for a new infant on the block.

The Connells have been married 11 years and their son is an adopted child born July 28 in Children Hospital, Detroit.

The entire celebration in front of the Connell's home, was a surprise to the couple.

TERRY KATHRYN NAGEL

Farmington Family Holds Annual Reunion

The Cox Family Reunion was held Sunday at Camp Dearborn in Milford with 84 people in attendance. There are descendants of Mr. and Mrs. John G. Cox who came from Somershire, England in 1860 and lived on Thirteen Mile Rd. near Drake Rd. in Farmington until their deaths in 1904 and 1907.

The families who came the farthest to attend were Mr. and Mrs. Fritz Meenen from Clay Center, Kans. and Mr. and Mrs. Leo McCarty from Concordia, Kans.

The oldest person attending was 90-year-old Mrs. Jennie Cox Zingelman, and the youngest was one-year-old Debby Carlson.

Others came from the communities of Detroit, Lansing, Howell, Pontiac, Brighton, Drayton Plains, and Gregory with many from the Farmington area including the families of John Cox, Earl Cox, Herald Cox, Hubert Neff, Ray Layland, Don Layland, Robert Briggs, and Mrs. Zingelman.

This group has met annually since 1920, with occasional get-togethers before then including Mr. and Mrs. John Cox's 50th wedding anniversary.

Courtesy Called For

Many privately owned timber stands welcome the public to camp and picnic—but courtesy and care are expected in return. Park up all litter and remember that the tiniest spark is a terrible enemy in the forest.

WORLD'S FASTEST HUMAN IS A SLOWPOKE COMPARED TO OUR RACE HORSES

The Figures Are Fascinating!

Horses and Humans contribute to an interesting Study of Speed as I think you will find ample.

Every day, with the exception of Sundays, from now through November 3, you have the opportunity to check the Speed of the Thoroughbred Horses at the Detroit Race Course. Some of the nation's top stars will be competing. We have a big Labor Day Week-end coming up, with exceptional 10 race programs both Saturday and Labor Day.

Back during my youth, when the brilliant Jesse Owens was at the peak of a career which saw him win four Olympic Gold Medals in the 1936 Games at Berlin, he rightfully was hailed as "The World's Fastest Human."

After Owens turned professional, he often raced against horses in exhibitions. While Jesse grabbed the headlines, it actually was an uneven contest. The Horse was a sure winner.

My thoughts turned to Horses Against Humans again recently, when 19-year-old Jim Ryun, the amazing Kansan, set the world's record for the mile with a clocking of 3:51.3.

Ryun's great achievement came only a few weeks after Ogden Phipps' Buckpasser also set a world record for the mile. Buckpasser's time was 1:32.5.

What do the comparative times mean? Just this. During his record performance Ryun was running about FIFTEEN (15) MILES PER HOUR, while Buckpasser was traveling better than THIRTY-EIGHT (38) MILES PER HOUR.

Let's look at the fractional times of The Human and The Horse and you'll get a still better understanding of the comparative speeds:

RYUN	BUCKPASSER
57.7 sec. Quarter Mile	23-1/5 sec.
1:55.4 Half Mile	43-3/5
2:55.3 Three Quarters	1:06-4/5
3:51.3 Mile	1:32-5/8

The Detroit Race Course track record for three-quarters of a mile (six furlongs) is 1:05, set in 1944 by Glass House. Our record for the mile is 1:35.5, established in 1901 by "Red 60".

The human records for the mile all have been set by athletes now active, while the top five marks for the Thoroughbreds go back a decade.

Take a look at this comparative table:

HUMAN	TIME	HORSES	YEAR
Jim Ryan (U.S.A.)	3:51.3	Red 60	1901
Michael Lary (France)	3:51.5	Red 60	1901
Jesse Roy (U.S.A.)	3:51.8	Pia Rio	1954
Peter Smith (New Zealand)	3:51.8	Immaculate	1954
Kip Kohn (Kenya)	3:52.2	Swan	1952

The Human has reduced his mile record at a rate of a second every three years in the past century. The Horse has shaved his mile record a second every 11 years during the same period.

Speed is just one of the multiple allures of Thoroughbred Racing. At the Detroit Race Course, we have a magnificent new $3,000,000 Clubhouse, with two beautiful Dining Terraces, offering the finest in food and beverages. There is the unique old English Pub, The Old Tired Horse, where you can have a snack or a refreshing drink.

We have close-in parking for 12,000 cars. There are three Easy-In Easy-Out entrances and exits off Middlebelt, Schoolcraft and Inkster Roads.

I invite you to join the ever-growing number of Michigan fans who find Thoroughbred Racing at the Detroit Race Course offers them thrills and excitement in a setting of beauty, comfort and convenience.
