

The New Year Is Time For A Fresh Start

By RABBI DAVID JESSEL Temple Beth Am

Tonight, the Jewish New Year will commence. It is a time of solemnity, when the adherents of the Jewish faith assemble in their synagogues and temples to offer supplication to the Lord of the Universe for a good and sweet year.

It is a time of reunion and a season of fresh beginnings. Once again, we seek to re-gather our energies, in order to confront the everyday problems of life.

Judaism teaches that at this season of repentance, we can destroy sin, we can create a new being, we can break the barrier between man and his benefactor. What a sign of God's benevolence, that He grants us through this period of repentance the opportunity to make a fresh start in life.

We can therefore utilize this occasion in healing the breach between ourselves and our former friends or estranged relatives. Nothing is worse in life than enmity between brother and brother, between companion and companion. This is a time to forgive the wrongs that have been perpetrated against us.

Life is too short to perpetuate grievances, and we shall pass this way in the universe only once. To those who are estranged, one from the other, let the New Year therefore bring the healing touch of reconciliation.

and the Rabbis of old, "you shall not stand against your fellow man, first go and reconcile yourself with him; otherwise, the High Holy-days cannot absolve you."

Those who consider themselves failures, must realize that the privilege of a new beginning is always at hand. We all know people who have allowed sickness or financial setbacks to overwhelm them.

If they were wise, they would realize that happy ness does not depend entirely upon these aspects of life alone. Man, with the help of God, can always develop new avenues of self-support and achievement.

Rosh Hashana thus brings the message of new beginnings, new dedication, new reconciliation. Let the New Year prompt you to face the undertaking which has long been delayed—whether it be a book you have sought to read; a trip you hoped to make; an acquaintance you have aspired to cultivate; a social service you have wanted to assist; a religious cause you have desired to further.

Paul Erickson To Lecture Sept. 24

An explanation of how to develop "spiritual perception" will be presented by Christian Scientist Paul A. Erickson, C.S.B., at a public lecture in Plymouth on Saturday, Sept. 24.

The lecture is titled "The Value of a Spiritual Outlook." It is sponsored by the First Church of Christ, Scientist, and will be presented at 8 p.m. in the church auditorium, 1100 W. Ann Arbor Trail. There is no charge of collection, and everyone is welcome.

Mr. Erickson, who once served as Chaplain's Assistant at the United States Naval Academy, gave up a position as manufacturer's agent in Chicago several years ago to become a recognized practitioner in the Christian Science healing ministry. He is also an authorized teacher of the religion, and is currently on tour as a member of the Board of Lecturers of the First Church of Christ, Scientist, in Boston, Massachusetts.
