3 out of every 7 women in Detroit prefer the cleanliness and controllability of electric heat!

Now, if only their husbands knew the facts about the costs!

We'll be the first to admit that not all homes can be heated economically with electricity. In many cases, however, electric heat really isn't expensive. And the added advantages are well worth it. After all, what other heat provides such even warmth from floor to ceiling? Or allows you to control the temperature of each room individually? What other heat is so clean?

If you're planning to build or add a room, or perhaps convert the attic, call your Edison office. One of our heating engineers will give you or your contractor a free estimate... on the cost of installation and how much your monthly bills are likely to be. Or send for our 20-page book on electric heat. It's free. And a great way to find out what electric living is really like!

Socially Speaking Around Plymouth

By Dorothy Sincov

GL 3-0038

(Call to report social events in your family, neighborhood)

It's off to Arizona for Wayne and Jean Ford. All will miss his smiling face at the Stop and Shop after 17 years of service. Neighbors and friends from Angeline Circle in Livonia where the Fords reside will also miss them.

And becoming acquainted with the new City Hall on October 6 will be newcomers who will tour the building, guided by City Manager Richard Blodgett. While on tour he will explain the workings of the city government.

Those wishing to attend from the club may make reservations by calling Mrs. William Keil at 453-7912-A through M or Mrs. Vernon Raos at 453-2768 N through Z. There will be no cancellations after Oct. 5. The tour will be preceded by hospitality at noon and a buffet lunch.

Claud and Helen Eckles are again planning a big turkey dinner on October 15 at the Grange Hall with Mildred Reinas and Gladys Carlson assisting.

Plan to get your ticket early and save. The price is $1.75 and at the door it will cost you $2. Mrs. William Squires is chairman of tickets and can be reached at 453-3030.

Mrs. Art Larsen, 1461 West Maple, will be hostess to the Panhellenic group on Oct. 2 at 12:30 p.m. For reservations please call Sally Peters at 453-6454 or Helen Wolfram at 453-3123.

Mothers — plan to have the children attend the AAUW Adventure Series on Saturday, Oct. 1, at the Junior High School West at 2 p.m.

The Washtenaw Interpretive Indian Dance Group will be the first presentation of the year. The title means: "Land beyond the little mountain."

The dancers are former University of Michigan students who have been together since 1953.

The group has traveled over Michigan and Ohio and performs annually at "PowWow" in Ann Arbor with Walter Cottigier from Detroit as director of the Ladies — Plan a table of bridge on Oct. 5 at the Elk's Lodge at 12:30 p.m. The Vivians are sponsoring the luncheon party and donation will be $1.50. Make your reservations by calling Ethel Taylor at 421-1728, Lois Williams at 453-4485 or Gussie Gates at 453-4772.

Planning a trip to Lansing on Sept. 29 are 12 members of the Sarah Ann Cochrane Chapter of the D.A.R. They will meet with Adele Erb Sullivan, the President General of the National Society Daughters of the American Revolution.

To Address Woman's Club

Judge Vokes, dean of the Common Pleas bench, will be the principal speaker at the meeting of the Plymouth Women's Club on Oct. 7, at Plum Hollow Country Club. Judge Vokes will discuss "Women I Have Married."

Judge Vokes

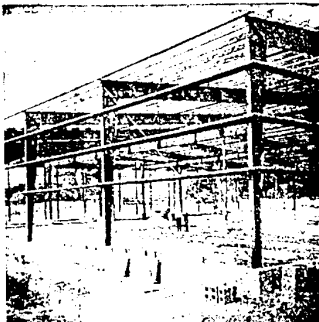

Originally appointed by Gov. Harry Kelly in 1944, Judge Vokes has been re-elected five times.

Mrs. Harry Deyo is toastmistress for the program and will introduce Judge Vokes and other guests in attendance.

Mrs. James Jabara and Mrs. Norman Hood are in charge of tickets. Hostesses will be: Mrs. Mowry Arnold, Mrs. Howard Hill, Mrs. Everett Burnester and Mrs. Charles Derr.

The welcoming committee includes Mrs. Marshall North, Mrs. Earl Russell, Mrs. Ray Barber and Mrs. Melvin Guthrie.

Checks for reservations should be in the hands of Mrs. Jabara or Mrs. Hood before Friday.

STRUCTURAL STEEL is nearly in place at the new home of Vice Products now going up on Ann Arbor Road near the railroad underpass. The owner, Leo Scholz, plans a 56,000 square foot building where his company will continue to make some 140 special automotive parts as they do at the Pearl Street plant.

Free Classes For Suburban Dropouts

If you are not a high school dropout between the ages of seven to 70 you need not read further.

If you are one of the many thousands of suburbanites who regret having left school before getting that valuable high school diploma, here's good news for you.

You can now return to night school to complete your secondary education without paying tuition.

NO-FEE COURSES

Livonia evening schools have set up a full schedule of 24 different no-fee academic courses. Moreover, all persons enrolling in these "get your diploma" courses will be able to get help and advice from a counselor before they enroll. This helps get students started in the right direction in the right class at the right time.

Livonians and other students from neighboring Wayne and Oakland county communities are urged to stop in at Bentley high school, Room 101, from 7:00 to 9:00 p.m. this week or next. Bentley is located 15100 Hubbard Road south of Five Mile road.

OFFER 24 COURSES

Courses scheduled to meet on Monday and Wednesday evenings are English 101, English 112, Modern English, 122, English Literature, English Reading and Composition, Chemistry III, Physics, Current Geography, Economics, World History, and Religion.

Extra Duty Contracts Approved

The Wayne Community Board of Education, whose district includes most of Westland, last week approved eight extra-assignment contract riders for four persons at Wayne Memorial and John Glenn High Schools.

The approval completed board action on the list of contract riders with the delay being caused by a board member's concern over several persons having two extra-curricular assignments.

Donald Domke was named Wayne Memorial athletic director and assistant football coach for an extra pay of $780 and $672 respectively while Lois Tobin will handle the dramatics and forensics duties for $986 and $396 respectively.

At Glenn High, William Elliott will get $780 and $900 for the athletic director and head varsity football coach positions with Letha Rice to handle the dramatics duties for $986 and Mary Tindall the forensics for $409.20.
