

Bob Vernon, Famed Singing Preacher To Conduct Revival Meeting Oct. 2-7

Bob J. Vernon, singer, preacher and television personality, will conduct a revival meeting at Kenwood Church of Christ Oct. 2-7.

Services begin at 11:00 a.m. and 6:30 p.m. on Sunday, and at 7:30 a.m. on Monday through Friday. The church is located at 18601 Middlebelt in Livonia, next to Livonia

Mall, and the public is urged to attend. In addition to Bob Vernon's Bible-based, non-denominational preaching, he will also sing during the meeting, presenting an entire concert one evening. There will also be music by the church's Revival Choir and Treble Aires Trio. Spirited congregational singing will be led by the minister, Lee Baltzer. Thoughtful provision has even been made for small children, with nursery care for those under three years of age and a class for the three to five year olds.

Mr. Vernon is one of four remarkable young men who comprise the Vernon Brothers Quartet. Through the medium of television they are spreading the Gospel message—without denominational overtones—from coast to coast with song, serious discussion on an television drama. This is a valuable

Dr. Heustis To Speak Sunday, Oct. 2

DR. ALBERT E. HEUSTIS

Dr. Albert E. Heustis, Director of the Michigan Department of Public Health, will be the guest speaker Sunday, Oct. 2, at 6 p.m. at the Redford Baptist Church, Grand River and Seven Mile. Dr. Heustis will give the first of a series of lectures by outstanding business and professional leaders on the theme "The Mission of the Church in the World Today."

Dr. Heustis received his medical and public health training at the University of Michigan and Johns Hopkins University and has served as head of the Michigan Department of Public Health since 1948. Dr. Heustis is well known as a public health director and as a Christian layman. He has served his local church as church school teacher and superintendent and as a vestryman. He is a recognized leader in the work of the Episcopal Diocese of Michigan.

Following the Sunday evening lecture by Dr. Heustis, there will be an informal question and answer session. The public is invited to attend the lecture and the discussion period.

Hello Michael
Mr. and Mrs. Dennis L. Scheller, 14114 Seminole, Redford wish to announce the birth of their ten pound, three ounce son, Michael Lawrence, Aug. 30. Their two "helpers", Paul, (three and one-half years of age) and Chris, (two and one-half years), also welcomed his arrival.

"Faith's Fun Fair & Bazaar" To Be Held Saturday, Oct. 22

Faith Lutheran Church Ladies' Guild, Livonia, installed their new officers at their Sept. 20 meeting.

Rev. Ronald Starenko installed Julie Kuczwara, President; Velma Duesing, Vice-President; Lucille Davies, Recording Secretary; Florence Willman, Corresponding Secretary; and Kate Otto, Treasurer. Serving on the Board as Council Members are Audrey Gross, Margaret Tulloch, Elizabeth Druckrey, and Virginia Smith.

This Service Organization of Faith Lutheran Church is spearheading and directing a "FIRST" at Faith, namely "Faith's Fun Fair and Bazaar" which will be held Saturday, Oct. 22 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Interest has been prevalent throughout the year as an endeavor of this kind to stimulate fellowship among the ladies of Faith.

Three of the officers have worked for the last year organizing this "FIRST" namely Julie Kuczwara, Lucille Davies and Velma Duesing. Featured booths will be Gift Shop Boutique specializing in hand-made articles, a Holly Shop with various holiday decoration items, Garden Shop, Country Kitchen and Country Store specializing in home-made baked goods and canned foods, "Ye Ole Curiosity Shop" with white elephant articles for the treasure seekers, Religious Booth, a Children's Book Fair, a ch'n painting exhibition, Old-Fashioned Candy Store, Children's games and movies while mothers and dads shop, as well as a Harvest Shop sponsored by the Teen Group selling pumpkins for Halloween.

A Snack Bar will be available for those wishing refreshments. Women of the Congregation have been asked to donate articles for the Fair so the Fun Fair and Bazaar will prove varied and interesting. Proceeds from the Fun Fair and Bazaar will further the work of the Guild whose special interest at this time is the Church Building Program which is underway under the title "Faith Lives." Finalizing a most interesting session, a special welcome and gift was presented to the wife of the new Pastor at Faith, Mrs. Fred Balke.

Farmington Family Holds Giant Reunion

Residing on Pillsbury Dr. in Farmington is Norbert Crowe, his wife Kate and two children Jean and Ronald. A married daughter lives in California. Norbert Crowe is one of the brothers in a family of fifteen boys and two girls (eight boys and one girl who are still living) which formed the greatest athletic family in Jefferson High history of Lafayette, Indiana. They were the children of Mr. and Mrs. James Crowe.

The Crowe family is no small affair and family reunions are huge. Their most recent reunion, their first in five years, was held at the Conservation Club meeting hall in Lafayette, Indiana. The boys (now grown men some of whose families are grown and married) are scattered throughout the States.

Klem resides in Buffalo, New York; Paul in Youngstown, Ohio; Mike in San Gabriel, Calif.; Emmett in Cincinnati, Ohio; Francis in Royal Oak, Mich.; Charles and Jim in Lafayette, Indiana; Norbert in Farmington and the only living sister, Margaret, in Kalamazoo.

Approximately 175 descendants of the Crowe family were at the gathering from all over the United States. The Holiday Inn in Lafayette was bulging with children of the original Crowes, grandchildren, a few cousins and a few who married into the family.

The Crowe athletes were known for their participation in football, baseball and basketball at Jefferson High.

THIS UNUSUAL SIGN urges people to attend the services of the Nankin Mills Baptist Church, 32430 Ann Arbor Trail, Westland.

"Church For Sale"
The Nankin Mills Baptist Church, 32430 Ann Arbor Trail, Westland is sponsoring an intensive program through its Church School which meets each Sunday at 9:45 a.m.
Dale Collins, Supt. of the Sunday School and Rev. Robert Ramsey, Pastor of the Church, have a great idea for a sale as indicated in the picture. The Church is not really for sale, but the church has a vision. This vision began nine years ago when the church was formed and has continued in growth ever since.
"Starting with the Sunday School nursery through the adults, we want to sell you the idea of salvation through Jesus Christ," states Collins.
The Church is presently undergoing a new extensive building program to provide more class rooms for the use of training children, youth and adults in the Christian faith. It is the prayer of the Church that it may effectively minister to the community.

First Methodist Church Begins Study Class Oct. 5

Consider this invitation to the Spiritual Life Study Class being offered by the Woman's Society of Christian Service of the First Methodist Church of Farmington for four consecutive weeks beginning Wednesday, Oct. 5.

The theme will be "Christian Being and Doing," with devotion, study, and open discussion led by Dr. W. Leslie Williams, pastor of the church. The class will study the Book of James and I Peter, and use a supplementary textbook which may be obtained at the first meeting. Open to all who are interested, the Study Class, planned by Mrs. David McGinnis, assisted by Mrs. Fred Westbrook, will be held in Room One of the Educational Unit of First Methodist from 9:30-11:30 a.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 5, Oct. 12, Oct. 19, and Oct. 26.

There will be an adult-supervised nursery for preschool youngsters. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. McGinnis at GR 6-1415, or Mrs. Westbrook at KE 5-4287.
