

20 Area Students Honored by EMU

Twenty area residents were among the 310 receiving degrees or teaching certificates after completion of academic requirements during the summer session at Eastern Michigan University.

Ten of the recipients were from other states, two from Canada and one from Afghanistan.

Those from the area include:

FARMINGTON — Donald Broderick, Business Administration; Betty Jo Casey, Bachelor of Science and Elementary Provisional Certificate; and Harry Schuler, Bachelor of Science.

GARDEN CITY — Grace Ahn, B.S. and Elementary

Provisional Certificate; Rose Marie Freeman, B.S. and Elementary Provisional Certificate; Diane M. Healy, B.A. and Elementary Provisional Certificate; Gary Kleinow, B.S. and Secondary Provisional Certificate; Larry Mumford, B.S. and Secondary Provisional Certificate; and James Vangel, B. A.

PLYMOUTH — Marilyn Huber, B. S. and Elementary Provisional Certificate; Leonard Luedtke, B.S. and Elementary Provisional Certificate; and Lois Randall, B.S. and Elementary Provisional Certificate.

WELCOME IS GIVEN to Rev. Fr. Eugene Van Antwerp by Plymouth Township Supervisor John McEwen after his selection as the new head of St. John's Seminary on Five Mile Road in Plymouth Township. Fr. Van Antwerp, who was transferred to the area from San Francisco, arrived just two weeks in advance of the Seminary's annual open house program on Sunday, Oct. 9.

Ex-Livonia Teacher Is MEA Editor

Howard O. Ward, journalist and former Livonia junior high teacher, has been appointed managing editor of the Michigan Education Association news publication.

Before joining the Livonia teaching staff, Ward taught in Lincoln Park and Wayne. He was chapter president of the Wayne Education Association and became editor of the MEA Region II Reporter while teaching in Lincoln Park.

As editor of the Livonia Educator's Association Focus, this year, he won first place for layout from the Educational Press Association of America.

Ward has served as president of the Livonia Education Association and is a delegate to the region, state, and national assemblies. He was on the MEA Publications Commission for six years, two years as chairman.

Picked for A.F. Course

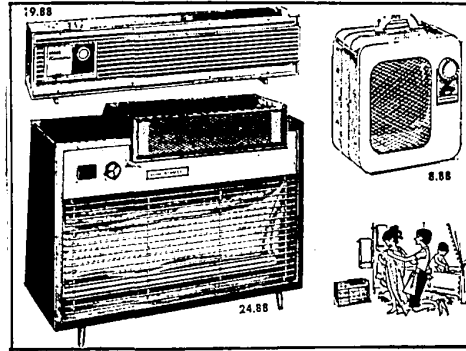

Airman David B. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. Hyle M. Adams, 31540 Alvin, Garden City, has been selected for technical training at Keesler AFB, Miss., as a U.S. Air Force communications specialist. Airman Adams was graduated from Garden City High School in 1964.

Recruiter Gets Award

Sgt. Robert Reed, Army Recruiter for the Wayne area, won the Army's top recruiting award for the Detroit area.

Lt. Don Paul, the Army's public information officer for Michigan, presented the award while on a visit to the Wayne Recruiting office located downstairs in the Wayne Post Office.

Reed enlisted 210 men and women from the Wayne area during the one year period ending last June.
