Frances Elizabeth Najorka made her debut in St. Mary Hospital March 29, weighing seven pounds, eight ounces. Her parents, Dawn and Peter Najorka of Montclair, bring her to join a family of two sisters, Ajlene and Mary, and a brother, Tom.

Tim and Bonnie Wright who live on Lakeland half where they came their second son, Stephen Michael. Born April first at Garden City Osteopathic Hospital. Stephen weighed in at seven pounds, twelve ounces. He joins an older brother, Greg, fifteen months.

A SURPRISE, shower last week was the highlight of Annie Neil's activities. A small group of her neighbors on Tuck, the usual pinocchio players, Nancy Wilson, Barb Miller, Paula Jurmu, Judy Eastman, Mary May, Charlotte Binder and Rita Strasser, gathered at Nancy's to present the expectant Annie with that boon to busy mothers—a playpen and some diapers, too.

Not all our baby news this week is happy. We want to extend our very deep sympathy to the Bloomer family of Tuck Rd. upon the sudden loss of their pre-1st baby and only daughter, Kristien, a week ago Tuesday. May our prayers attend them.

The weekend before last, Joe and Kay Gates of Montclair took a trip to Sebewaing for a brief visit of three days with Mr. Gates' parents, Mr. and Mrs. L. W. Gates.

JUST RETURNED from a somewhat longer leave of two weeks in Springfield, Massachusetts, is Mr. R. Freudenburg. While he was away on business training, the Mrs. was left to her own devices and in possession of the family auto. Naturally the first thing she did was—get Joan first took a hop to her mother's in Orono with the girls Beth and Rachel; but returned shortly finding the care of two young ones alone and away from their home base and paraphernalia a little much. The remainder of her "free time" was happily spent running to any store on a whim, and transporting a cousin for a weekend visit, during which her mother and brother also joined her. Since husband Ron returned Friday, Joe's life is grounded again, but doesn't mind. She says life without a man around is considerably more hectic than life without wheels.

TWO COUPLES, Gail and Arnold Smith, and Annette and Gene Marmon, have celebrated wedding anniversaries this week. Smiths' red letter day was April 4, and Marmon's, April 11. Congratulations!

The happy birthday banners are up this week for seven of our number: David Erickson, April 7; Sandra Hoganson and Dean Wilson, the 2nd; Thelma and Ken Hedges, the 4th; Steven Babb, the 5th; and Tommy Kovack yesterday, the 12th.
