Pat and Bill Morgan have just returned from such a fabulous weekend birthday with a party for windjammer cruise that it seemed imperative to write it up at greater length elsewhere in the paper. They were gone from Farmington for three weeks visiting faraway places with strange sounding names. Cindy Johnson had her seventeenth birthday with a party for some of her friends topped off by dinner with the family at the Pancake House. Brother Steve was confirmed on a recent Sunday at St. Christopher's Episcopal Church in Detroit. Tom and Frances Pouch had their anniversary dinner at that scenic restaurant in the Top of the Flame. Barbara Babington spent her thirteenth birthday with her family; Steve Benz was 13 also with a family dinner for grand-
