

Wood Creek Farms Village

ANNE M. PHILLIPS
MA. 4-4225

Helen Reiss phoned to tell me of the marriage of her daughter, Beverly Seaman. On March 26, at the Cross of Christ Lutheran Church at Telegraph and Lone Pine Roads, they became Mrs. Clyde Dixon. Clyde works for the same insurance company as Bev, Sentry Insurance. They will both continue to work there and they are living in the Parkstone Apartments on Parker at Jefferson.

The 23rd of this month Helen and Ray Reiss expect to move to the Willow Apartments, Telegraph and Long Lake Roads. We shall miss them in Wood Creek but they have sold their home to Bud and Gladys Keenan, who expect to move from Inkster Road to Old Colony over this weekend. The Keenan's present home will be occupied by Bud's sister and her family. We want to extend a warm welcome to Jack and Rosemary Harrington and their three boys, Steve, 9, Tim, 8, and Tom, 5.

DOUG AND ANITA Cooper moved from here April 1 to 1840 San Jose, Lathrup Village. We shall miss them. Their former home on Utley Road is now occupied by Mr. and Mrs. Fred Marshall. I regret I could not reach them Monday morning to get more information about them. I do know they moved out from the 6 Mile Woodward Avenue area of Detroit and that Fred has retired. We want to welcome them to our community.

Merle and Wilma Neville, with Kurt, left here Good Friday morning and drove to Williamsburg, Va. It was beautiful there with the early buds and catkins in bloom. Kurt, 10, has just finished studying the Revolutionary War so this was planned for him to see old battlefields and places of history at that time. From Williamsburg they drove along the Blue Ridge Parkway for but a short distance as the fog made it impossible to see more than about 10 feet. They stopped in Gatlinburg and drove about that area; then to Lexington, Ky., where they visited horse farms. They reached home Sunday.

Dick and Marie France, with Kim, flew to St. Petersburg, Fla. on the 6th and stayed on Treasure Island until they had to fly home the 14th.
