MRS. DAIL B. WILLOUGHBY

Cleary-Willoughby Ceremony Held at Midland Church

Miss Linda Ruth Cleary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dent Cleary of Midland, Mich., became the bride of Dail B. Willoughby of 3298 Biddlestone Lane, Farmington at an afternoon double ring ceremony held in the First Baptist Church of Midland. Dail is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Keith B. Willoughby.

Officiating clergyman was the Rev. Arthur Gordon Smith, and the organist Miss Bethany Boyd. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Noneman sang Love Divine.

The church was decorated with gladioli and greens festooning the pews, with an altar bouquet of white snap dragons, stephanotis, and Majestic daisies.

The bride's gown was Schiffler-embroidered silk organza with Camello sleeves, a bateau neckline and fitted Dior bodice. The Schiffler-embroidered daisy applique complemented the controlled-bustle effect floor-length skirt which fell to a chapel train. A forehead headdress of steel pearls and tiny orchids secured an imported bouffant veil of silk illusion. She carried a nosegay-shaped bouquet of stephanotis and white orchids with ivy.

MISS SHANNON CLEARY, sister of the bride, was maid of honor, and acting as bridesmaids were Miss Marcia Connolly of Detroit, Miss Susan Koerker of Midland, and Miss Judith Prentice of Cuba, N.Y. They were dressed in floor-length gowns of Capri blue silk organza over taffeta with scoop necklines, Camello sleeves, and quilted skirts. The backs were accented with Dior bows ending in floor-length streamers. The maid of honor's gown was a deeper shade of Capri blue, and all carried nosegays of white daisies and ivy.

Harold Whiting of Farmington attended the bridegroom as best man, and his ushers were Ronald Martini and Alex Bonner of Farmington, Michael Snyder, Robert Mason, and Robert Shearer all of Midland. The bride's mother was attired in apricot Alencon lace over a silk taffeta sheath, coffee brown hat and shoes, and she wore a brown cymbidium orchid.

The mother of the bridegroom chose a silk two-piece ensemble in mist green with matching accessories and a green cymbidium orchid.

GUESTS WERE received after the ceremony in the Hearthside Room of the church with a string quartet providing the music. Members of the music group were Bryan Paine, Miss Christina Heckrodt, Miss Susan Nelson, and Daniel Lee.

Special guests honored with corsages of miniature roses were Mrs. Ray Avery, Mrs. Walter Willoughby of Gullport, Miss, and Mrs. Lorenzo Roeller of Bay City.

A honeymoon trip to California by way of New Orleans was planned. The bride's traveling costume was a two-piece linen suit of heather yellow which she matched with her accessories and accented with a white orchid.

After their month's trip, the couple will return to Kalamazoo college where Linda is majoring in English and Dail is studying archeology. They expect to spend their junior year at Robert College in Istanbul, Turkey.
